	"A classic Bordeaux blend (70% Merlot 30% Cabernet Sauvignon) from an outstanding vintage, Chateau Bellerives Dubois is a legendary style of wine at an affordable price. Best of all, you don't have to cellar it for ten years before it's ready to drink. Its soft, accessible flavors of blackberry, plum and tobacco are already showing their full potential. This is not an "oaky" wine - instead, the focus is on the natural fruit flavors of the grape." - Reviewed by: Producer

	"Consistently better than its humble appellation, this excellent wine from proprietor Jean Guyon offers up plenty of black currant fruit intermixed with cedar wood, licorice and incense in a medium to full-bodied, surprisingly concentrated and expansive style that should drink nicely for a minimum of a decade or more. There’s no need for patience with this sleeper of the vintage, given the sweetness of its tannins, attractive glycerin and fruit levels." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts
