	"Pleasant on the nose, sweet, toasty oak nose with caramel overtones... Tastes rich and creamy with seared-oak flavors; caramel and vanilla notes linger on the front of the palate, but it is still soft enough to hold on the tongue even at 94 proof, with a big mouth-watering oaky finish. Long with a little spice, staying forward on the palate without the bitter bite found in older whiskeys."
190031	Angel's Envy Port Barrel Finished Bourbon	$44.99	N/A	N/A
	Kentucky straight bourbon whiskey finished in a port pipe. This is veteran master distiller Lincoln Henderson's newest creation, and it's a beauty. Richly textured, silky, and well-rounded, with ripe berried fruits, candied tangerine, light toffee, maple syrup, and creamy vanilla, sprinkled with spice (cinnamon, hint of mint). Smooth, silky finish, and dangerously drinkable! The port pipe notes dovetail perfectly. Lovely just the way it is, but it's begging for a cigar. My only gripe: why not 45 or 50% ABV? But I'm splitting hairs. I really enjoy this stuff!

	"Delicate, biscuity, sugar cookie batter aromas start the experience; another six minutes bring forward scents of ripe yellow fruit, gum, confectioner's sugar and a distant hint of honey. Palate entry features the corn component in its finest grainy sweet state; by midpalate, flavors include caramel corn, cocoa butter, oak resin and honey. Finishes sinewy smooth in the throat." 85-89 pts. - Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast
