	"....Slightly creamy mouthfeel. Pleasant aftertaste with a dry finish. Not a bad beer, in fact considering the light, crisp, rather smooth and slightly sweet taste, this is a very refreshing beer...." - Reviewed by: Beeradvocate.com

	"The first nosing passes find gentle scents of light spice and brown sugar; aeration reveals solid aromas of molasses and buttered toast. The palate entry is delicious, rich and toasty; the midpalate features elegant flavors of toasted honey-wheat bread, honey and refined sugar. The finish is more bittersweet than sweet." 90-95 pts. - Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast

	"The initial inhalations expose a moderately spicy, black peppercorn perfume; aeration brings about flax, cooked vegetables, and brown sugar. The platform flavor is intensely cocoa-like, then at midpalate, the taste leaps into deeper cocoa/bittersweet chocolate territory before turning lean and keenly bittersweet, oily and chocolaty in the finish." 85-89 pts. - Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast

	Amber with a deep copper cast. Moderately full bodied. Reminiscent of stone fruits, flan, herbs. Thick texture. Very viscous, with a rich silky feel that is delightful! Quite pronounced in its fruity components. Unctuous big finish.
115281	Tia Maria Coffee Liqueur	$28.99	N/A	N/A
	"Blue Mountain coffee grounds aroma have a pleasantly spicy, nutty edge. A round, supple entry leads to a sweet, lightly syrupy medium body of coffee, cane syrup, and roasted pecans. Finishes with a lightly peppery and sweet coffee and rock candy fade. Nice vibrancy and cut of acidity." - Reviewed by: Beverage Testing Institute

	"The bouquet is floral, bean-like and pleasantly nutty. The palate entry is acutely astringent; the midpalate is baked nut-like with bitter tastes of oak and molasses. The aftertaste is long, desert-dry, sugary and sap-like. Not as overly woody as many old rums are; delicious in an old-guard style." 90-95 pts. - Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast
