72378	2012 Justin Cabernet Sauvignon	$14.99	N/A	N/A
	"Clear with a medium ruby, purple core and light violet rim. With medium-plus intensity, it’s a beautifully classic cabernet sauvignon mix of ripe blackcurrant, black and red cherries with vanilla, cedar, sweet tobacco, and licorice accents. Medium-plus body with dark fruit of cassis and black cherry on the entry. Barrel notes of vanilla and cedar with savory black tea and herbal notes come through on the mid-palate. The finish is long and clean with lingering bright cherry and spice of sassafras and licorice, surrounded by smooth firm to medium tannins. A traditionally styled cabernet sauvignon in all respects – beautifully balanced and food friendly, the 2012 Justin Cabernet Sauvignon is a good match to burgers and steak right off the grill." - Reviewed by: Producer

72152	2009 Altesino Brunello di Montalcino	$29.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2009 Brunello di Montalcino is loaded tight with fresh berry aromas and crushed flower followed by measured leather and spice. The wine ages for 30 months in large oak cask. There is a touch of heat (the back label lists 14.5% alcohol) that is only just discernable, happily, that power is nicely wrapped within the fleshy, opulent mouthfeel. Of special note are those distinct floral aromas that make a strong second showing on the finish." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts
71822	2011 Tenuta dell' Ornellaia	$99.99	N/A	N/A
	"The sun-filled, early-maturing 2011 vintage perfectly expresses the qualities of Ornellaia. The wine appears an intense, youthful fruit that is fully ripe yet at the same time crisp and lively, backgrounded by delicate nuances of balsam and toastiness. On the palate, the powerful concentration immediately impresses, as do the tannins, massive yet silksmooth and glossy, which allows the wine to completely fill the mouth but with no feeling of heaviness. The finish, near endless, is deliciously pungent and spicy, with a welcome crispness throughout." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 96pts
