Dictador 20 Years Solera System Rum is made from the fermentation of virgin sugar cane honey, distilled partly in copper alembic and partly in steel continuous column, to achieve a medium body rum. It's then aged in pre-used oak barrels using the solera method and finally bottled under the highest quality control to ensure all the secrets are contained in the liquid flavour. Intense dark amber colour with red brown tones, big on the nose with soft caramel, vanilla, smoky honey, toffee, dry seeds, roasted coffee and a rich rounded oak sensation. In the mouth it is very soft and round, yet big and full flavoured, with caramel, vanilla, cocoa and roasted honey and a strong and rare texture, exceptional complexity unique to Dictador Rum, great finish.

	Panama Pacific rum first enters ex bourbon barrels from Kentucky. They spend their first 3 years in those vessels soaking up all of the wonderful vanilla tannins and chewy bourbon flavors. They are then transferred into ex Tennessee whiskey barrels. These barrels age the rum at a slower pace while continuing to thicken and enrich the rum with more vanilla tannins and sweet chewy flavors. This 9 year old is vibrant and lively with robust molasses flavors. Hints of tobacco and subtle oak float in the background. Wonderfully rich rum, but not cloying with caramel. The bourbon and Tennessee wood really add a nice layer of flavor to this rum. Toffee, Vanilla, fruit, molasses, and sugar cane.

	The first release of its kind for Don Q. An unblended single barrel of rum, aged for 10 years. Considering the time this has spent in the barrel, the nose is lite and youthful. Plenty of vanilla on the nose along with a fat creamy backbone. But, we're definitely on the lighter side of rum here. On the palate, this rum is walking a perfect line between chewy and lite. The mouth fills with nice vanilla notes, and is greeted with a subtle dose of anise and oak from the 10 years in wood. Incredibly pleasant and full of flavor. You could certainly drink this on its own, but it would also do great in a cocktail. We're looking forward to more of these single barrel releases from Don Q. Reviewed by: Binny's Mamajuana is a drink exclusively from the Dominican Republic that is made by adding rum, red wine, and honey to a combination of twigs, bark, leaves and herbs. The taste is a unique combination of woody and herbal flavors, it is sweet to semi-sweet and normally the color is a deep brown/red. People normally drink it straight or on the rocks although recently more and more people use mamajuana in the preparation of cocktails. The alcoholic content of the original mamajuana is 30 percent (60 proof) which makes it more drinkable to people who find hard liquors like rum and whisky too strong. Also the fact that mamajuana is semi sweet makes it smoother to drink. On the other hand mamajuana still has sufficient alcohol to be considered a hard liquor.

"The initial aroma is reminiscent of old fashioned cream soda pop; following aeration the bouquet turns as sweet as vanilla Coke or cotton candy. The palate entry is intensely sugary, and beany; the midpalate flavor features vanilla bean and molasses. Concludes well and smooth. An extra-sweet white rum made from molasses." From Tennessee. 84221	Dictador XO Perpetual Solera System Rum	$99.99	N/A	N/A

Dictador XO Perpetual is made from the fermentation of unique virgin sugar cane honey, distilled in an antique alembic copper still, then is aged in the highest quality pre-used oak barrels from ex-bourbon. Finally we use our traditional family Solera System where the master blender produces the most exquisite blend, using only the finest barrels from each vintage year, approved for bottling under the highest quality control. Maintaining old time traditions in rum making, the heart of our ancestors are in the legacy of Dictador and the following notes: the rum has a deep and noble mahogany brown colour, incredibly dark and yet golden colours, supberb shine and richness in the glass. When the bottle is opened a hypnotic aroma, with intricate roasted honey, Colombian coffee, royal toffee, dark chocolate, mature oak and parfait roundness. The mouth feel is extremely smooth,with fudge, flavours of parfait sweet Colombian coffee, dark chocolate. The finish is long, complex, with light oak flavours coiming into play, giving you the sensation of extreme quality and balance between strength and softness. Reviewed by: Producer

937176	2004 Plantation Vintage 2004 Rum Belize Finished in Port Cask Binny's Hand Spiked Cask We like Plantation Rum so much, we bought an entire barrel of it. This selection was distilled in 2004 in Belize. The rum was then finished in a port barrel for 6 months. The resulting rum is a classic dark rum with a twist. The port finish adds a depth of fruit to the rum not commonly seen. Rich cane notes, molasses, spice, and vanilla are rounded out nicely with a subtle raisin or dark fruit quality from the port finish. Balanced and complex, marked by an incredibly velvety smooth character on the palate. Reviewed by: Binny's	$49.99	N/A	N/A
