	"The 2011 Dow Vintage Port was made from no less than 44 separate ferments from finest fruit sourced from Quinta do Bomfim (35% of the blend), Quinta da Senhora da Ribeira (42%) and the Santinho (14%) and Cerdeira (6%) estates. Just six of the best lots were used in the final blend, which consists of 40% Touriga Franca, 36% Touriga Nacional, 10% Sousao and 14% of old vine plantings. It has a beautiful, quite extravagant bouquet with copious black and red fruit, Indian spice, and hints of menthol and orange rind that unfold wonderfully in the glass. The palate is a sumptuous affair, one that is beautifully balanced with velvety smooth, plump tannins, copious black fruit with a harmonious, white pepper-tinged finish that is a decadent delight. This is one of the finest of the declarations of 2011 Vintage Ports, a sublime expression of the vintage you would be foolish not to buy. 	"The 2011 Graham's comes from the five quintas that have been the source for many years (Malvedos, Tua, Vila Velha, das Lages and Vale de Malhadas). It represents a selection of the 131 pipes from a total production of 1,454 and is a blend of 40% Touriga Nacional, 31% Touriga Franca, 6% Sousao and 23% mixture of very old vines. It has a more "serious" bouquet compared to the Dow, with beguiling scents of blackberry, wild hedgerow, tobacco and cloves. Straight-laced, very well-defined and compelling, the palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannins and supremely well-judged acidity. It is utterly harmonious, with a pure core of ripe black cherries, damson, marmalade, clove and spices, and the finish lingers long in the mouth. The separation of "The Stone Terraces" vines certainly does not appear to have detracted from a great Graham's." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 95 to 97pts

In 2008 the wine was discovered by Taylor's, who found that, not only was the wine in perfect condition, it was sublime. Fifteen decades of ageing in oak casks had concentrated it to an essence of magical complexity. An elegant hand-blown crystal decanter has been made exclusively for Scion. This is displayed in a solid teak box based on the design of a nineteenth century instrument case with traditional joinery and brass fittings. This represents an opportunity which will never be repeated to acquire this wine of the utmost rarity and historic significance. 	"This has a hint of grass and is perky and fresh. Yet, it has some solidity, too. It not just an ethereal summer weight white. Happily, it also has very nice penetration and grip on the finish. It seems pretty solid for the entry level and it also tastes just great. I loved its purity and freshness. This is going to make a lot of folks happy this summer when it is likely at peak. It is a beauty right now." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 89pts
