When you've been doing something for 250 years, you tend to get pretty good at it. That's exactly what Jose Cuervo has been doing. This Especial Silver Tequila has 250 years of distilling experience standing behind it. On the nose, we are smelling wonderful agave notes alongside white pepper, and a pleasantly rich creaminess. Certainly an incredibly well balanced silver tequila. On the palate, we're right in the sweet spot. Not to fat, not to lean. The finish is decent in length with warm agave notes, a creamy vanilla flavor, and soft pepper to round everything out. We can see why so many people return to Jose Cuervo over and over. This Tequila is quite versatile. Easily sipped, or mixed into a wonderful margarita.

	"Smooth and cocktail worthy, this vodka has a neutral scent with a very faint malty note, a crisp, lightly sweet flavor and a clean finish. An excellent choice for those who prefer vodka martinis." - Kara Newman June 1, 2013 Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast - 91 pts - Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast - 91pts

	"Carolans combines Irish spirits and whiskey with fresh cream and derives its superior taste from the subtle blending of flavours, including natural honey. Smooth toffee notes married with dairy scent and honey memories on the nose. Vanilla flavour with a smooth texture. Creamy taste, accented with the burnished gold of aged spirits and wild flower honey." Reviewed by: Producer

	"Intended as a salute to Prohibition-era smuggler Captain William McCoy, this bold—even rugged—golden whisky has a rich honeyed aroma accented with pear. A beer-like effervescence and hoppiness surprises the palate, cutting the otherwise rich caramel and maple notes before winding into lingering touches of cigar smoke, toffee and black pepper." - Kara Newman Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast - 90 pts - Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast - 90pts
