82874	2013 Justin Cabernet Sauvignon	$23.99	N/A	N/A
	"COLOR: Clear with a dark ruby purple core lightening at the rim. AROMA: Aromatic with ripe black cherry, blackcurrant and berry fruit with vanilla, cinnamon and subtle dried fall leaf accents. PALATE: Classic cabernet with moderate plus blackcurrant and cherry fruit and baking spice flavors on the entry. Sweet tobacco and savory herbal notes arrive on the mid palate, along with beautifully balanced tannins that provide a structure that supports the wine through its perfectly balanced, clean finish." - Reviewed by: Producer

Once again, we were able to make this spicy and noble varietal the backbone of our Pape Star blend, which is typical of most French Chateauf-neuf-du-Pape bottlings. We also had a gorgeous Mourvedre harvest, so a full 75% of this wine is made up of Grenache and Mourvedre. Syrah, as usual, adds structure, and we again included a hint of Cinsault (although quite a bit less than previous vintages). It clams up tightly on the finish, but there is certainly complexity and class here. 82321	2014 Chateau La Croix Saint Georges Pomerol (Futures)	$38.75	N/A	N/A
	"The Château La Croix St. Georges 2014 has an uncomplicated, fresh bouquet with brambly red berry fruit with a touch of wilted rose petal, though it does not deliver the concentration of recent vintages. The palate is medium-bodied with supple ripe tannin, well-judged acidity and a harmonious, elegant finish. Winemaker Jean-Philippe Janoueix usually goes from a more bullish style of Pomerol. This is more refined and in a way, classier. It will also be one of Pomerol's more approachable wines but one that still deserves respect." - Neal Martin, eRobertParker.com #218, Apr 2015 - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90 to 92pts
82695	2014 Chateau Berliquet Saint Emilion (Futures)	$28.50	N/A	N/A
	"The Château Berliquet 2014 is a blend of 75% Merlot, 23% Cabernet Franc and 2% Cabernet Sauvignon picked October 1-17, at 30 hectoliters per hectare. It has a fragrant bouquet, one that is well defined, quite floral with wilted violet petals infusing the red and black cherries. This is nicely focused, aromatic and sensual. The palate is soft on the entry with crisp red berry fruit, a fine line of acidity and an endearing sense of harmony. There is just the right amount of reserve and dryness to urge you to take another sip. This is a stylish Berliquet from Nicolas Thienpont and his team." - Neal Martin, eRobertParker.com #218, Apr 2015 - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90 to 92pts
82644	2013 Liquid Farm Chardonnay Golden Slope	$49.99	N/A	N/A
	"The first vintage's barrels reminding us of some of what we are obsessed with about whites from Beaune, we decided something honoring the Cote d'or was in order - hence, Golden Slope. Smoky minerals, iodine, lemon curd, heady orchard fruit, ginger tea, liquid sunshine." - Reviewed by: Producer

	"Captivating, with a lively quinine streak leading the way, followed by Jonagold apple, honeysuckle, green almond and plantain notes that race through the pure, mineral-driven finish. Intense, with enough in reserve to warrant cellaring. Best from 2014 through 2020." - James Molesworth, Feb 28, 2013 - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 93pts
83044	2009 Chateau Musar Hochar	$33.99	N/A	N/A
	"A blend of 50 percent cinsault with grenache, cabernet sauvignon and carignan, this comes off a vineyard planted 3,280 feet above sea level more than half a century ago. Cinsault's sour cherry flavor and light, gauzy texture headline the wine, while darker notes of earth, smoke and berry fruit remain in the background. The balance completely upends the usual expectations, the wine more about fragrance than weight, in the most delightful, palate-whetting way. Play it up with salmon seasoned with sumac." - Issue date: 08/14 - Reviewed by: Wine & Spirits - 92pts

82725	2012 Dandelion Vineyards Shiraz Riesling Lion's Tooth	$22.99	N/A	N/A
	"Deep red with hints of violet on the edges, indicating youth. Intriguing rose petals and a summer pudding of lifted red fruits, berries and a little lime marmalade from the cofermentation with the aromatic Eden Valley Riesling. Wild cherries, blueberries, and mulberries and an impressive structure balanced by spicy oak. Opulent, intense red berries balanced by soft velvety tannins and supple oak, resulting in an intriguing finish derived from the unique, enlightened co-ferment." - Reviewed by: Producer

	"While the Clape's are mostly known for their Cornas, they make a solid Saint-Peray and a brilliant Vin de France and Cotes du Rhone. The 2013 Saint-Peray has plenty of honeyed minerality, apple blossom, subtle brioche and leafy herbs to go with medium-bodied, juicy style on the palate. Drink it over the coming couple of years." - Jeb Dunnuck, eRobertParker.com #216, Dec 2014 - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 88pts

	"Bright medium red. Slightly reduced aromas of musky red fruits, spices, leather and game. At once silky and juicy, with some edgy acidity enlivening the flavors of strawberry, raspberry and leather. Finishes dry and slightly green-edged but juicy and sweet too. I found this more intense and delineated than the village Volnay under this label." - Stephen Tanzer, March 2014 - Reviewed by: Vinous - 88pts

	"Here the nose is similar if slightly cooler and a bit more elegant as well. There is an attractive verve and excellent freshness to the supple, delicious and more sophisticated mouth feel as the supporting tannins are finer, all wrapped in a balanced finish that offers similar length but not quite the same depth. A qualitative choice though the character of each wine is distinct." - Tasted: Jan 10, 2012 - Reviewed by: Burghound - 84 to 87pts

	"Starting with Rene's classic Cote Rotie, the 2012 Cote Rotie Ampodium is a mostly destemmed blend from Rene's 13 different terroirs. It's aged in a combination of demi-muid and older barrels, with just 5% being new. It's smoking base cuvee that does everything right, offering up tons of sweet blackberry, wild herbs, pepper, spice and olive aromas and flavors. Full-bodied, beautifully textured and with impressive concentration, all while stay classic and elegant, it's a no-brainer purchase and will have 15-20 years of longevity." - Jeb Dunnuck, eRobertParker.com #216, Dec 2014 - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts

	"The 2014 Reserve de La Comtesse is quite soft and lush in this vintage, in part because of the large presence of Merlot. Dark red cherry, plum, new leather, spices and cloves are super-expressive. Dried flowers, smoke, pencil shavings and dark spices reappear on the open-knit, resonant finish. With time in the glass, the Reserve finds more gracious dimensions of expression, with redder tonalities of fruit intermingled with spice that come forward. I imagine the 2014 will drink well pretty much upon release, as it is already quite open. The blend is 59% Cabernet Sauvignon and 41% Merlot." - Antonio Galloni.
