	Fresh orchard fruit on the nose, with bakery suggestions in the background. Candied cherries and blood orange on the attack with mocha nuances and spice box hints unfurling with a swirl in the glass. A remarkably intense whiskey whose balance of silky texture and flickering warmth defies expectations. The flavors persist long on the palate, with vanilla and caramel notes emerging with time in the glass. A simply stunning expression of malted barley, as deftly crafted as the Scotch whiskies that inspired distiller Matthew Hofmann. A mind-boggling malt whiskey.
