73801	2007 Agrapart & Fils Extra Brut Blanc de Blancs Mineral	$99.99	N/A	N/A
	"As usual for this bottling, originating with two neighboring 40-year-old parcels in Avize near the communal line with Cramant, and vinified roughly half-each in tank and cask, Agrapart's 2007 Extra Brut Blanc de Blancs Mineral is only coming onto the market this fall in France, and the bottle I tasted in June – with a written-over 2006 label – had been disgorged in January of this year solely for purposes of press tastings. Pleasantly piquant aromatic suggestions of sourdough yeasts, toasted buckwheat and lemon rind have their persistently stimulating counterpart on a strikingly delicate and nuanced palate, with stone, chalk, salt and smoke accenting fresh apple and winter pear. With time, a more caressing textural side emerged. The sense of salivary gland stimulation in the lingering finish is extremely active, and combined with tactile impingements of chalk, radish, lemon rind and active yeasts (figuratively speaking, of course). This is certainly less obviously multi-faceted and energetic than the corresponding "Terroirs" bottling, but utterly intriguing, impressively refined, and likely to merit at least a half dozen years of attention." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts
72252	2007 Deutz Blanc de Blancs	$69.99	N/A	N/A
	"This is firm, with a chalky texture and a steely backbone of acidity, offering a subtle mesh of apple and pear pastry, lemon mousse and blanched almond flavors that show a hint of crystallized honey, culminating in a floral- and spice-tinged finish." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 92pts
69206	2007 Louis Roederer Brut	$69.99	N/A	N/A
	This wine was named #9 on Wine Enthusiast's Top 100 Cellar Selections of 2013. "While 2007 was not the greatest vintage, Roederer managed to produce one of the best wines of the year. It is a great blend of mature yellow fruits, with a pure line of tangy orange zest. Tightly textured, with bright acidity and steely minerality, it promises long aging. Drink until 2025, and possibly longer." - Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast - 96pts
73123	2007 Moutard Cuvee 6 Cepages	$49.99	N/A	N/A
	"This unique mix of all six of the region's indigenous grape varieties -- Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Pinot Meunier, Pinot Blanc, Petit Meslier and Arbane -- creates a delightfully fragrant and floral wine with exceptional depth. A fascinating and alluring Champagne." - Reviewed by: Producer
