	"The 1999 Clos l'Eglise is a tremendous success for the vintage. It is showing even better from bottle. A stunningly complex nose of vanilla, espresso, plums, figs, charcoal, and black cherry liqueur jumps from the glass of this flamboyantly-scented wine. In the mouth, it is all sex appeal, with silky, voluptuous flavors, sweet tannin, low acidity, and ripe, concentrated flavors." -Robert Parker, Jr. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts

	"The 1999 Taurasi Radici Riserva is simply beautiful. Sweet dried cherries, licorice, menthol and spices waft from the glass. Made in an elegant style, this complex Riserva shows some of the slightly advanced and oxidized flavors one might reasonably expect from 10 year-old wine, yet the balance is utterly compelling. The finish is long, sweet and ethereal, as pretty suggestions of mint come back to frame the wine beautifully." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts

	Dark garnet in color with a delicate touch of copper around the rim and nice long legs. The nose is bright with figs and prunes and earthy aromas of loam and ash. The mouth is action packed with leather and sweet tobacco. A woody spice note lingers while muscular tannins cover your teeth. This full bodied red still has loads of life left in it and will easily stand up on its own. Allow time to breathe. - Gabriel Zdrojkowski, Binny's River Grove - Reviewed by: Binny's
