Super oaky and musty with loads of funk. There was an intense dry yeasty quality as well. Notes of brett were apparent. Some fruitiness came through as well. Cherries were detectible. The flavor profile was very similar to the nose, except perhaps a bit fruitier. Sour, funky and slightly musty with intense sour cherry notes. Touch of raspberry perhaps. Loads of brett-like tartness and oak/barrel character. The beer was anchored by a bready malt backbone which lent the beer a subtle sweetness. Lemon notes came through in the center. Crisp with a touch of vinegar-like acidity. The beer finished quite dry with notes of oak and tannins. The mouthfeel was impressive. Medium bodied for the style. Creamy, slick and smooth.
