112831	Grand Marnier Quintessence	$799.99	N/A	N/A

Created in 2011, Quintessence is made with the most precious cognac from the private reserves of the Marnier-Lapostolle family. GRAND MARNIER® Cellar Master Patrick Raguenaud has carefully selected very rare cognacs coming exclusively from Grande Champagne, the most prestigious growing area of Cognac. He then blended these outstanding eaux-de-vie with very old cognac from the family Paradis, their private cellar. These cognacs date back to 1906. This rare and unique blend of cognacs is then combined with unique double distilled Citrus Bigaradia orange essence resulting from a time honored secret GRAND MARNIER® process. Instead of being macerated in neutral alcohol, oranges are macerated in a very aromatic orange essence before being distilled. The result is a very subtle essence, the quintessence of orange distillation. The blend of cognac and orange essence is then aged in French oak casks, so that the flavors can mature together; reach the perfect balance and the quintessential taste.

	Golden in color, the nose of this Pineau is lively and complex, with aromas of dried fruit; notes of pear-flambee and honey persist. It's wonderfully balanced on the palate as pear and honey flavors blossom from the start. The finish shines with invigorating, complex tannins and hints of candied grapefruit. - Reviewed by: Cigar Aficionado
