73122	Moutard Champ Persin	$36.99	N/A	N/A
	"Ripe Gala apple, peach and guava fruit notes lead the way in this juicy version, backed by mouthwatering acidity and a fine, creamy bead. Delivers hints of candied almond, ginger, kumquat and coconut." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 92pts
73265	Canard Duchene Charles VII Blanc de Blancs	$59.99	N/A	N/A
	"Pale, bright yellow. Vibrant citrus and green apple on the nose, with a strong overlay of dusty minerals and ginger. Dry and firm, offering tangy Meyer lemon and orchard fruit flavors, with a spicy quality on the back end. Made in a nervy, sharply focused style, with strong finishing cut and excellent length." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91pts
74383	Ayala Brut Majeur	$39.99	N/A	N/A
	"Firm, with a lively bead and a smoky overtone accenting the flavors of sun-dried black cherry, pickled ginger and strawberry pâte de fruit. Fruit and pastry notes grace the moderate finish." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 90pts
74011	Champagnes Barons de Rothschild Brut	$250.00	N/A	N/A
	"Bright gold. Musky pear skin and peach pit aromas, along with a strong note of orange marmalade. Fleshy, smoky and broad, offering intense citrus fruit, candied fig and poached pear flavors that stain the palate. Distinctly rich and weighty Champagne with strong finishing punch and a lingering ginger note." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91pts
73155	2002 Salon	$400.00	N/A	N/A
	"The 2002 is a huge, dense wine loaded with fruit. All of the classic Salon citrus, slate and floral notes are present, but it is the wine's superb textural richness that stands out most. Even though I have not followed my own advice, I suggest readers to plan on cellaring the 2002 for a good number of years. Because of its density and depth, I expect the 2002 will develop into a fairly exotic, voluptuous Champagne, within the context of Salon, of course." - Reviewed by: Vinous - 96pts
74243	1998 Dom Perignon P2	$345.00	N/A	N/A
	"The 1998 Dom Pérignon P-2 (formerly Oenothèque) is quite reticent today. What else is new? These second -plenitude wines are often very tight when they are first released, which is very much the case here. Still, it is quite evident the 1998 is a bit more tender and pliant than the 1996. Today, the 1998 still hasn't turned the corner, but it is quite pretty and expressive. This is a terrific offering." - Reviewed by: Vinous - 95pts
73266	Canard Duchene Charles VII Blanc de Noirs	$59.99	N/A	N/A
	"Bright yellow-gold. Ripe pit and orchard fruits on the nose. Offers flavors of redcurrant, cherry and musky herbs, with sneaky anise and truffle nuances building on the back half. Distinctly rich and even a touch decadent but finishes with very good energy and brightening acidity." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 90pts
73801	2007 Agrapart & Fils Extra Brut Blanc de Blancs Mineral	$99.99	N/A	N/A
	"As usual for this bottling, originating with two neighboring 40-year-old parcels in Avize near the communal line with Cramant, and vinified roughly half-each in tank and cask, Agrapart's 2007 Extra Brut Blanc de Blancs Mineral is only coming onto the market this fall in France, and the bottle I tasted in June – with a written-over 2006 label – had been disgorged in January of this year solely for purposes of press tastings. Pleasantly piquant aromatic suggestions of sourdough yeasts, toasted buckwheat and lemon rind have their persistently stimulating counterpart on a strikingly delicate and nuanced palate, with stone, chalk, salt and smoke accenting fresh apple and winter pear. With time, a more caressing textural side emerged. The sense of salivary gland stimulation in the lingering finish is extremely active, and combined with tactile impingements of chalk, radish, lemon rind and active yeasts (figuratively speaking, of course). This is certainly less obviously multi-faceted and energetic than the corresponding "Terroirs" bottling, but utterly intriguing, impressively refined, and likely to merit at least a half dozen years of attention." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts
73785	Ulysse Collin Extra Brut Blanc de Blancs Les Perrieres	$79.99	N/A	N/A
	"Greenish yellow. Pungent aromas of fresh pear, tangerine, toasty lees and iodine, with a suave floral overtone. Sappy orchard and citrus fruit flavors pack a serious punch and are lifted and sharpened by building smoky minerality. This blanc de blancs Champagne acts a lot like a serious Chablis. Weighty and focused on the persistent finish, leaving floral, mineral and sweet citrus notes behind." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 93pts

73690	2011 Cedric Bouchard Inflorescence Blanc de Noirs Val Vilaine	$59.99	N/A	N/A
	"Full of flourishes and opulence yet at the same time, so impressively detailed in its expression of crisp fruit, a giant bouquet of wildflowers and minerals. This blanc de noirs flaunts all the power, richness, exoticism of the Pinot grape." - Reviewed by: Producer
73048	2004 Dom Ruinart Brut	$140.00	N/A	N/A
	"The 2004 Dom Ruinart is seriously beautiful. A vivid, captivating Champagne, the 2004 flows across the palate with gorgeous, crystalline fruit and superb balance. Lemon, pastry, apple and white flowers are all layered into the finish. A model of total elegance, the 2004 is a wine for the patient. It won't be ready to deliver maximum pleasure for a number of years, even though it is absolutely dazzling today. The 2004 is 69% Chardonnay from the Côtes des Blancs and 31% Chardonnay from the Montagne de Reims." - Reviewed by: Vinous - 96pts
