56543	2010 Guigal Cotes du Rhone Red	$13.99	N/A	N/A

"One thing you can always expect from a Guigal wine is intense fruit. The 2010 Cotes-du-Rhone, a mostly-syrah wine blended with grenache and a touch of mourvedre, offers assertive dark berry and floral elements and a suave spiciness that gives it uncommon complexity for a wine at this price. Believe it or not, this bottling ages very well, as recent bottles of the 1998(!) have proven to me." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 90pts

"The 2011 Vin de France K11 is a blend of 100% Carignan (from 60+-year-old vines) that was brought up 80% in concrete tank and 20% in 3-year-old barrels. Coming from parcels in Minervois and Saint Chinian (yet due to blending regulations, it's labeled as VDF), it sports an inky, opaque purple color to go with rocking aromas of crunchy black fruits, pepper, leather, scrub brush and flowers. Medium to full-bodied, rich and nicely concentrated, with a core of sweet fruit, it needs a decant to shine, and will be even better in another year."

"As for the two red wines, the 2012 Bastide Miraflors is a blend of 70% Syrah and 30% Grenache aged in a combination of concrete tanks (for the Grenache) and demi-muids (for the Syrah). It went through a six week maceration, which no doubt explains the wine's seriously intense fruit. A finesse-driven effort, it sports plenty of smoked black fruits, cherry, new leather, licorice, wild herbs and loamy earth qualities as well as a medium-bodied, focused and firm feel on the palate. 	"The Gamekeeper's Shiraz Grenache Touriga is packed with juicy, bright fruit with a touch of spice. The spicy pepper of the Shiraz and the generous, gamey, raspberry flavors of Grenache finish with soft yet assertive tannins. The tiny proportion of Touriga Nacional in the mix gives it a floral and spice finish. A very food friendly wine, it interplays rather than dominates." - Reviewed by: Producer
