"The 2010 Syrah – Xinomavro Axia is from high altitude vines in the “Petres” and “Dromos” sub-regions of the Amyndeon Plateau. It was aged for 12 months in medium- to light- toast French oak. It comes in at 14% alcohol. This may be its best iteration yet, if you are a fan of bright and earthy wines. From the first sip, it projects an earthy nose (the Syrah ascendant), ending with a crisp, mouthwatering and focused finish (credit the Xinomavro). Once past the nose, the Xinomavro seems quite dominant here, given the wine’s juicy finish and high acidity. It has a backbone, but it is nicely controlled and not overbearing, so it can be approached young. It should hold awhile, though, as it demonstrates the ability to improve over a couple of hours, getting better balanced and projecting more depth and harmony. As sharp as it seemed on opening, it was surprising how beautifully balanced it eventually was. (I mentioned Barbaresco – think Sottimano as a good model here.) Still, this isn’t going to be the first choice for a porch sipper. It’s not fleshy and it’s not sweet. It needs food." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts

"Tastes like a sexy, open-knit, lush, silky Pomerol. Loads of black currant and black cherry fruit, licorice, spice box and Christmas fruitcake emerge from this beautifully rich wine." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts

66465	2012 Maipe Malbec Reserva	$12.99	N/A	N/A

"The same can be said for the 2012 Malbec Reserve, a 100% hand-harvested Malbec from the estate's finest vineyard parcels. Aged 12 months in French oak, it possesses a softer style than the Cabernet Sauvignon with more minerality as well as lots of blackberry, white chocolate, incense and graphite characteristics. Deep ruby/purple-hued, rich and full-bodied, it is a full-throttle, stunning Malbec." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts

52842	2009 Callabriga Dao Tinto	$11.99	N/A	N/A

"Powerful and dense, this is full of well-structured flavors of dark plum, boysenberry and wild cherry that are accented by notes of mineral and sage. The long finish exudes white pepper and savory spice, with hints of chocolate. Pure and vibrant." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 91pts

56965	2010 First Drop Mother's Ruin Cabernet Sauvignon	$19.99	N/A	N/A

"Glass-staining ruby. Classic cabernet aromas of red- and blackcurrant, cherry, tobacco and medicinal herbs, with a floral overtone and a strong note of mocha. Juicy, gently chewy and deep in dark fruit flavor, with gentle acidity adding definition and lift. Dusty tannins give grip to a long, spicy and nicely focused finish." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91pts

72597	2011 Palacios Remondo la Montesa	$15.99	N/A	N/A

"It's interesting to compare the 2010 with the 2011 Finca La Montesa, which has a slightly different blend – 70% Garnacha, 25% Tempranillo and 5% Mazuelo – also sourced from the family vineyard La Montesa del Monte Yerga in Alfaro. It displays notes of ripe red fruit and spices in an elegant but in a slightly rustic way. The palate is round, with some tannins and ripe flavors. This is very good value." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts

55463	2012 Chateau Vrai Canon Bouche	$17.50	N/A	N/A

"A dense purple color is followed by a sweet nose of raspberries, blueberries, spring flowers and crushed chalk. This intense, medium to full-bodied 2012 is a superb wine that over-performs once again. It should age effortlessly for 10+ years." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90 to 92pts
