	"Perfect cold weather Sherry! A rich, dark brown color reminiscent of maple syrup doesn't disappoint on the nose or the palate. It's decadent, sweet, a little nutty, and the finish lasts seemingly forever. It's great for after dinner, but you could almost drizzle this on your waffles instead of syrup." - Trey Johnson, Binny's Champaign - Reviewed by: Binny's
321471	Emilio Lustau Solera Reserva Rare Amontillado Sherry Escuadrilla	$23.99	N/A	N/A
	"Smoky and resinous, with caramel, roasted walnut and iodine flavors that go on and on. A hint of oxidation and burnt molasses on the finish." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 90pts
320040	Alvear Amontillado Carlos VII	$25.99	N/A	N/A
	"Possesses a medium amber color, gorgeous freshness, plenty of exciting nutty flavors, and a classic, dry finish." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts
321492	Emilio Lustau East India Solera Sherry	$22.99	N/A	N/A
	"Rich and concentrated with coffee and caramel flavors in a balanced presentation. Picks up a grilled nut accent on the finish." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 90pts
321006	Gonzalez Byass Noe Pedro Ximenez	$46.99	N/A	N/A
	"Thick and intense, it coats the mouth with burnt molasses, caramel, but also an aged, oxidative note that sets it apart form its peers. Fruitcake, sultana and bitter chocolate accents add to its appeal. It's harmonious and finishes surprisingly elegant."
321498	Emilio Lustau Solera Reserva Oloroso Sherry Emperatriz Eugenia	$36.99	N/A	N/A
	"Open-knit, with alluring notes of bittersweet cocoa, dark tea, espresso bean and dried orange that are racy but gentle through the finish." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts
53284	Valdespino El Candado Pedro Jimenez	$29.99	N/A	N/A
	"An intense color of mahogany with deep aromas of dried fruits (figs and raisins) and suble notes of chocolate and coffee. The palate is very smooth and velvety with prune notes and a very long finish." - Reviewed by: Producer
