	"Bright cherry red with a deep robe and violet glints. Fresh and fruity on the nose with aromas of blackberries, ripe strawberries and sour morello cherries. These aromas perfectly integrate with hints of white pepper and rosemary along with subtle notes of nutmeg and cinnamon. The mouthfeel is balanced and vibrant with a predominance of fruit flavors. A lively and intense attack is followed by an explosion of black cherry and fresh plums. The finish is long and persistent with notes of cacao and mocha." - Reviewed by: Producer

	"The 2011 G Dehesa Gago eschews oak – the wine is just put in the tank and then racked. It has a straightforward bouquet of blueberry, red cherries and a touch of balsamic that is well-defined and "pert." The palate is quite succulent and primal on the entry with lush blueberry and cassis notes. It offers a pleasing, grainy texture with that balsamic note returning on the finish." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts

	"Musky blueberry, blackberry, cassis and violet on the nose, with complicating oak spice and white pepper nuances. Supple, sweet and pliant, displaying good energy and focus to its black fruit and bitter chocolate flavors. Finishes with strong but smooth tannins and a hint of candied flowers." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 90pts

	"This is a corpulent wine also having a lot of finesse, with an intense nose having notes of chocolate, black fruits and vanilla. In the mouth the taste is striking, being predominantly round and silky, very unctuous with subtle hints of the glycerine. Touches of fruits linger in the after taste as do mineral notes. This is a full body wine yet at the same time very easy to drink." - Reviewed by: Producer

	"Bright purple. Intense dark berry aromas are complemented by potpourri, cola and vanillin oak. Broad, palate-coating blackberry and blueberry flavors become livelier with air and show an energetic spiciness. Finishes with very good clarity and juicy persistence, the cola and spice notes repeating." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91pts
