	"Tasted from a barrel sample at en primeur. A blend of 60% Sauvignon Blanc and 40% Semillon picked between 3 and 11 September, this has a very attractive nose of lemon peel, apricot blossom and a faint touch of toffee apple. The palate is nicely balanced with subtle tropical notes on the entry, dried apricot and a touch of white peach that inform the spicy finish. This is a very good white from Pique-Caillou. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90 to 92pts

	"This wine has closed down since I saw it prior to bottling. A blend of 80% Sauvignon Blanc and 20% Semillon from one of the great estates in Pessac-Leognan, the wine has notes of white currants, melon, and flint/crushed rock with a delicate hit of orange and lemon zest. Give it another 4-5 years of cellaring and drink it over the following three decades."-Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 95pts

	This wine was named #98 of Wine Spectator's Top 100 Wines of 2013. "Creamy and caressing overall, with brioche and macadamia nut flavors framing the core of white peach, yellow apple and green almond notes. The long, salted butter finish also features pleasant echoes of quinine and tangerine. Should unwind nicely in the cellar." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 94pts

	"A blend of 60% Sauvignon Blanc and 40% Semillon, the Pique Caillou Blanc has attractive, pear and lime flower scents on the nose, the two grapes varieties complementing each other well. The palate is well balanced with a fine line of acidity, edgy with a citric note from start to finish that is elegant and subtle. This is a commendable wine from Paulin Calvet." Reviewed by: Neal Martin, The Wine Advocate - 89 to 91pts "Barrel Sample. Full and ripe, this is a fine wine. It has rich fruit notes of apricot and kiwi, with fresh acidity on the finish. The wood aging gently brushes the aftertaste." - Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast - 92 to 94pts
