"The 2010 Collaboration Series IV is a Merlot-dominated blend that's made by Carolyn Lakewold of Donedei Wines. The stated goal with this cuvee is to straddle the line between old-world and Nld World in style, and while I'm not sure how close they got to that mark, I can say that it's certainly a beautiful wine. Possessing an inky purple color as well as an up-front, intense bouquet of black and blue fruits, violets, licorice, leather and liquid flowers, it flows onto the palate with a full-bodied, hedonistically styled texture that carries solid freshness and plenty of framing tannin that emerges on the finish. There's a smidge of volatile acidity here, yet the wine handles it and is a plush, downright sexy effort that's hard to resist. This wine was named #94 on Wine Enthusiast's Top 100 Cellar Selections of 2013. "This is Long Shadows's 100% Cabernet Sauvignon, offering a sharp-edged wine with a brilliant mix of berry, cherry and black fruits, sparked by juicy acids. There's spice and chocolate highlights as well, with a purity and focus that suggests cellaring to add more complexity over the course of a decade or longer." - Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast - 94pts

70170	2009 Corliss Estates Syrah	$59.99	$49.99	17%

"For this report, the 2009 Syrah is the youngest release and it's certainly worth waiting for. A co-fermented blend of 95% Syrah and 5% Viognier that spent 30 months in 55% new French oak, it offers up a thrilling array of blackberry and black currant fruit, incense, spice box, chocolate and roasted meats on the nose. Already complex and getting a big "Wow" in my notes, it has decadent richness, yet never seems heavy or cumbersome. Similarly styled on the palate, with a full-bodied, voluptuous texture, superb mid-palate depth and masses of tannin on the finish, it will benefit from another 2-3 years in the cellar and have 10-15 years or more of ultimate longevity." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 96pts

54699	2010 Owen Roe Yakima Valley Red	$37.99	$34.99	8%

"Aromas of deep cherry and raspberry fill the glass. Flavors of slate, dusty rock and ash are nicely encompassed with rich chocolate, potpourri spice and blueberry notes; finishing with gripping tannins and incredible structure". - Reviewed by: Producer

54569	2010 K Vintners Merlot Stoneridge Vineyard	$39.99	$34.99	13%

"This is what merlot can do. Walk into a humidor, now you are inside this wine. Aromas of the inside of a lady's evening bag, black roses, tiny dark cherries (Amarene) and Oolong tea. Smooth and satisfying. A wine that would even make the Bordelaise proud." - Reviewed by: Producer

67214	2010 Hogue Genesis Meritage	$12.99	N/A	N/A

"Genesis Meritage is representative of the best qualities of its components: Merlot brings cherry fruit and a supple quality to the blend; Cabernet Sauvignon, power and structure; and Malbec adds depth of fruit and complexity. Flavors are of rich black raspberry, a touch of cardamom and sandalwood, and earthy cedar notes." - Reviewed by: Producer

49251	2008 Long Shadows Sequel Syrah	$49.99	$39.99	20%

"Smoke, game, black tea, incense, blueberry, and blackberry aromas compose the bouquet of this relatively forward, plush, pleasure-bent Syrah. It can be approached now and will continue to provide enjoyment through 2020." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts

74065	2011 Force Majeure Cabernet Sauvignon Collaboration Series	$69.99	N/A	N/A

"Coming all from the new, incredibly steep estate vineyard located high up near the top of Red Mountain, the 2011 Collaboration Series Cabernet Sauvignon is distinct in the lineup for its deep black currant, tobacco, underbrush, violets and mineral-loaded profile. More rounded and supple on the palate than some of the Ciel du Cheval bottlings, it has a rich, weighty mouthfeel, knockout purity of fruit and enough silky tannin to allow it to evolve gracefully for at least a decade. This is only the fourth leaf for the vineyard and hats off to the Force Majeure crew for having the vision to push the envelope on where grape vines can be planted and for the perseverance to work those steep hillsides." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93 to 95pts

56456	2010 Quilceda Creek Cabernet Sauvignon	$210.00	N/A	N/A

"Rich, backwards, structured and massively concentrated, the 2010 Cabernet Sauvignon is comprised of 99% Cabernet Sauvignon and 1% Merlot that spent 22 months in all new French oak. Offering up plenty of creme de cassis, coffee bean, toasted spice, pencil shavings and violet-like qualities on the nose, it has palate staining levels of extract and tannin that come through on the mid-palate and finish. Gorgeously full-bodied, layered and textured, with perfect balance." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 98pts

44797	2009 Quilceda Creek Cabernet Sauvignon	$210.00	N/A	N/A
	This wine was named #60 of Wine Spectator's Top 100 Wines of 2012."Pure and impressively expressive, with focused currant, plum, blackberry and black olive aromatics turning on the palate to a more complex profile, weaving in coffee, crème brûlée and chai tea notes, all wrapped in a polished texture. The finish doesn't want to quit." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 96pts
66619	2008 Corliss Estates Cabernet Sauvignon	$75.99	$69.99	8%
	"More perfumed and lively aromatically, yet more firm and backwards on the palate, the 2008 Cabernet Sauvignon is a knockout 100% Cabernet Sauvignon that spent 30 months in 70% new French oak. Classically styled, with black currants, toasty oak, violets, licorice and background meatiness, it is a full-bodied, structured and age-worthy 2008 that will evolve gracefully for 15+ years." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 95pts
56544	2009 Long Shadows Sequel Syrah	$49.99	$39.99	20%
	"Good bright, deep ruby. Complex, scented nose combines crushed rock, licorice, blackberry, smoked meat, black pepper and graphite. A bright, intense fruit bomb in the mouth, with dark berry flavors accented by cocoa powder, black pepper, dark chocolate and rosemary. Very clean and primary syrah with terrific depth." -Stephen Tanzer - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 93pts
73970	2013 Maryhill Viognier	$10.99	N/A	N/A
	"Golden straw color. Attractive aromas of peach, pear, ginger, and cantaloupe with a velvety, dryish medium body and a smooth, complex, medium-long, heirloom melon, peach jam, candied ginger, and ale yeast finish. Think chardonnay in a daring outfit, full and round but unafraid to show off its daring, spicy, edgy style." - Reviewed by: Beverage Testing Institute - 90pts
