	"Colorful wine, feeling just a mature cabernet sauvignon with hints of underbrush. The fruit is there, the fruity note also. In the mouth, I find the equilibrium values ??of winemaking Borie. In fact, the tannins do not interfere, making this wine enjoyable to drink now. Good but not sophisticated, yet it leaves a fruity aroma. A Saint-Julien with a forest that has not the class of wine on the river side." Reviewed by: Jean-Marc Quarin - 86pts

	"Another sleeper of the vintage. ...this very stylish St.-Julien has a dark ruby/purple color, light tannins, but beautiful berry fruit intermixed with some underbrush, mocha, and floral notes. Fruity and already charming, this wine should drink nicely for 8-10 years." Reviewed by Robert Parker. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 88pts

	"Another sleeper of the vintage from Bruno Borie, this 2010 is atypically powerful, rich and concentrated, with loads of sweet black currants, mocha and a hint of caramel. Deep, lush, succulent, and fruit-driven, it is a wine to drink in its first 10-12 years of life." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 91pts

	"This St.-Julien is actually made at Ducru Beaucaillou and is designed to offer exuberant cassis fruit with an unmistakable northern Medoc personality. The dense ruby/purple 2009 is delicious, with low acidity and lots of cassis, Christmas fruitcake and spice box. The wine is medium to full-bodied, has no hard edges, and is an attractive, velvety wine to drink over the next 7-8 years. A sleeper of the vintage."-Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 88pts

	"A stunning sleeper of the vintage. ...this beautiful, already irresistible plum/garnet-colored 2008 is a wine to purchase by the case. It possesses a dense plum/purple color, a glorious perfume of Christmas fruitcake, cedarwood, black currants, jammy cherries and licorice, medium to full body and a silky personality. It will provide both a hedonistic and intellectual turn-on over the next 10-15 years." Reviewed by Robert Parker.

	"Mouthfilling, offering a fleshy, briary feel to the plum sauce, steeped currant and blackberry notes, with extra anise, tar and fruitcake details pumping through the finish. Lacks a little refinement in terms of structure, but this offers solid range and depth." Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 90pts "This estate continues to go from strength to strength. Another sleeper of the vintage, the 2011 is excellent, possibly outstanding. Its dense ruby/purple color is followed by abundant aromas of cassis, forest floor, tobacco leaf and a vague hint of oak. Ripe for the vintage with excellent texture, a medium to full-bodied mouthfeel and a delicious, savory, broad appeal." -Robert Parker, Jr. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 88pts

This is a seriously endowed, surprisingly full-bodied effort that is atypically rich and textured for the vintage. Kudos to Saint-Pierre, one of the smallest but finest and most consistent of the St.-Julien chateaux. Give it 3-4 years of cellaring and drink it over the following 15+ years." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91 to 93pts	$48.50	N/A	N/A
