53880	2009 Chateau Les Roques Loupiac	$14.99	N/A	N/A
	"Intense golden yellow hue. Exuberant nose with dominant aromas of dried fruit, honey and apricot marmalade. It also evokes aromas of roasted nuts and spices. Sweet freshness. Creamy texture with a long finish." - Reviewed by: Producer
67621	2011 Aydie l'Origine Madiran	$12.99	N/A	N/A
	"A wine of great value from Southern France, the Aydie Madiran pours a dark purple hue and has a wonderful floral bouquet on the nose with notes of cedar. On the palate, like most Madirans, it is rustic and earthy, with notes of chocolate, plums and black cherries. The tannins give this wine a lot of power and depth as well as some aging potential. A blend of 70% tannat and 30% cabernet franc. Pairing this wine with some bold hearty dishes will really let it shine." Reviewed by: Jon Kaiser, Wine Manager, Binny's Bloomington "Deep red color with shiny tints. The nose is very complex, with black fruit aromas (blackberry, cherry) mingling with floral (violet) and spicy notes. The palate is ample and pleasant, and reveals rounded tannins. The final is fresh and fruity." - Reviewed by: Producer
70892	2013 Domaine des Cassagnoles Gros Manseng	$9.99	N/A	N/A
	"The Gros Manseng produces fleshier, more ample wines with fruity apricot and pear aromas. It is a lively wine, but not to excess, with a persistent finish." - Reviewed by: Producer
59226	2009 Domaine Didier Dagueneau Les Jardins de Babylone Jurancon	$135.00	N/A	N/A
	"Deep in color, intense ripe and exotic fruit with a complex spiciness. Impressive indeed, ripe, rounded notes of pineapple, star anise, mirabelle, guava and acacia honey with a gentle creaminess. Seductive and juicy on the finish. 100% Petit Manseng, 10.5% alcohol and approximately 125g/l residual sugar." - Reviewed by: Producer

59227	2010 Domaine Didier Dagueneau Les Jardins de Babylone Jurancon	$135.00	N/A	N/A
	"Dagueneau's approach is to produce wines that bring out the natural minerality of the soil and have balance, harmony and longevity. The relative sweetness of each vintage is secondary to the balance of acidity, texture and richness of fruit and the wines will never be chaptalised. The 2010 Jurancon Jardin De Babylone is a deep yellow-gold in color with fruity aromas of apricot, peach, citrus and tropical fruit with honeyed overtones. The palate is intense yet balanced between deep toffee and dried fruit and beautiful soft acidity." - Reviewed by: Producer
