	"Sweet toffee, roasted nut, and brown spice aromas are inviting. A silky entry leads to a very supple, dryish medium-to-full body of rich caramelized nut and creme brulee flavors. Finishes with a long, warming fade of dark caramel, stony minerality, and tingling peppery spice. A wonderfully delicious and dangerously drinkable whisky with instant appeal to lovers of fine bourbon." - Reviewed by: Beverage Testing Institute

	"Medium amber tint. Concentrated aromas of oak, ash and toasted grain are elegant yet profound; for me, it's the prototypical Tennessee whisky bouquet. In the mouth, warm, roasted, ash- and tobacco-like flavors are scrumptious and intense. Oaky, grainy finish. The best bottling of George Dickel." 90-95 pts. - Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast

The flavor signature is bold and unique much like Sam Houston himself. The aroma brings to mind hints of caramel and vanilla which combine with the rich smoky texture to form a perfect union. 	"A unique corn whisky made from atole, a roasted blue corn meal. We use this rich and nutty corn to produce a whisky that we hope will bring something new to the corn whisky tradition. Baby Blue isn't bourbon or white lighting. It has the freshness and verve of traditional corn whisky, but with a refined complexity. The result is a round nuttiness with roasty overtones and a smooth finish. Baby Blue was the first Texas whisky on the market since prohibition. It is the first and only craft-made whisky to receive 5-point rating from F. Paul Pacult's Spirit Journal (except for our Texas Single Malt)." - Reviewed by: Producer

	"Double chocolate, it appears... as usual a stunning nose from Prichards: do they know how to do anything else? Crisp rye and crisper apple teams with equally firm Demerara and liquorice but that chocolate plus corn and vanilla offers the counteriing softness required; a mega bourbon nose...; Like the nose, absolutely breathtaking intensity which spells bourbon with every atom; spellbinding balance between the maple syrup sweetness and the drier vanillas; the corn really does have a major input in flavour. Oils and Dries out a fraction and some cocoa returns, but remains chewy. If only they could bottle that nose ... oh, they have ...!!! Just wonderful whiskey." - Reviewed by: Jim Murray's Whisky Bible - 94pts
