73742	2009 Chateau Castera Medoc	$16.99	N/A	N/A
	"Another excellent cru bourgeois made from 65% Merlot and the rest primarily Cabernet Sauvignon, this is a delicious, attractive, supple, fruit-driven wine with loads of red and black currants, tobacco leaf and earthy undertones." - Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 87pts
54802	2010 Chateau Tour Saint Bonnet Medoc	$19.99	$17.99*	10%
	"A beautiful sleeper of the vintage, this is possibly the best wine I've ever tasted from this over-achieving estate near St.-Christoly-de-Medoc. A blend of 45% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon and the rest Petit Verdot, this wine normally sells for about $15 a bottle, making it an absolutely staggering value in the worldwide marketplace. The 2010 exhibits classic cedar wood, tobacco leaf, creme de cassis, licorice and some balsam wood notes in a strong, medium to full-bodied, layered style with good opulence, purity and overall harmony. A real beauty, it should be drunk over the next 4-5 years." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts

	"Sweet plum, deep cherry and currant notes. ...as well as underbrush and earthiness are all present in this elegant, mid-weight wine, which has good freshness, decent acidity, and ripe tannin. It should drink nicely for up to 7-8 years." Reviewed by Robert Parker.
20822	2009 Chateau Haut Condissas Medoc	$44.99	$37.99*	16%
	"A big-time sleeper of the vintage, this inky purple wine has a beautiful nose of creme de cassis, incense and acacia flowers. Some subtle barbecue smoke is also present in this full-bodied wine, which is the best of all the Jean Guyon estates in 2009. For the statisticians out there, it is a blend of 70% Cabernet Sauvignon, 25% Merlot and the rest Petit Verdot. Drink it over the next decade."-Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate, 90 pts. "Offers a solid core of mineral, berry and light vanilla aromas and flavors. Full and racy, with a long finish. Well done." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 90 to 93pts

53301	2010 Chateau Rollan de By Kosher	$44.99	N/A	N/A
	"Consistently better than its humble appellation, this excellent wine from proprietor Jean Guyon offers up plenty of black currant fruit intermixed with cedar wood, licorice and incense in a medium to full-bodied, surprisingly concentrated and expansive style that should drink nicely for a minimum of a decade or more. There's no need for patience with this sleeper of the vintage, given the sweetness of its tannins, attractive glycerin and fruit levels." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts
21515	2009 Chateau Les Grands Chenes Medoc	$24.99	$19.99*	20%
	"One of the cru bourgeois estates in the empire of Bernard Magrez, this may possibly be the best wine Les Grands Chenes has yet made. From old vines (average age 45) in the very northern part of the Medoc, the final blend of 51% Merlot, 43% Cabernet Sauvignon and the rest Cabernet Franc hit 14% natural alcohol. The wine displays loads of espresso roast, black chocolate, creme de cassis, forest floor and tobacco leaf in a full-bodied, opulent, and flamboyant style. Dense, rich and deep in fruit, it exhibits the plush, silky tannins that are a signature of Michel Rolland, the overall consultant for all of the Magrez estates. Drink it over the next 7-8 years."-Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts
