72890	2012 Chateau des Karantes Bergerie la Clape Languedoc	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"The Ch des Karantes, Bergerie 2012 Languedoc La Clape Rouge is, perhaps mercifully, Carignan-free, and 14% alcohol. It is characterized by ripe concentrated fruit but has no suggestion of heat or heft. Instead, it is well balanced, long and satisfying - and approachable already, perhaps because there is none of the rigidity of all but the finest Languedoc Carignan. I'd drink this any time over the next five years." Reviewed by: Jancis Robinson, MW, jancisrobinson.com
72930	2013 Neyers Sage Canyon Red	$19.99	N/A	N/A
	"The Carignan is from 120-year old vines on the Evangelho Ranch in Oakley, and the Mourvedre is from vines on that same parcel; both are own-rooted (un-grafted) vines. The Grenache is from the Bokisch Vineyard in the Clements Hills area. The Syrah is from the Old Lakeville Road vineyard in the Sonoma Coast AVA. Each variety lends its singular set of components to the finished wine. Each could undoubtedly exist as a sterling example of its respective variety. The whole, we like to think, is greater than the sum of its parts." - Reviewed by: Producer
72928	2011 Domaine Paul Autard Chateauneuf du Pape	$39.99	N/A	N/A
	"This estate produced some rock-solid 2011s. First, the straight 2011 Chateauneuf du Pape is loaded with a sweet core of raspberry and black raspberry fruit that's balanced by more toast, spice and cedar notes. Medium-bodied on the palate, with sweet tannin and solid purity, the oak dominates slightly, yet this holds everything together beautifully and is a joy to drink." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts
74134	2011 Pierre Amadiou Gigondas Cuvee Romane Machotte	$24.99	$21.99*	12%
	"The 2011 Gigondas Romane Machotte is 80% Grenache and 20% Syrah that spent 12 months in older casks and barrels. A pretty, elegant and silky effort, it offers up notions of sweet cassis, black raspberry, spice and toasted bread, with a medium to full-bodied, focused, textured feel on the palate. A joy to drink now, it represents a solid value and should evolve gracefully through 2021." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts
73411	2011 Paul Jaboulet Aine Cotes du Rhone Parallele 45	$11.99	$10.99*	8%
	"Bright ruby. Aromas and flavors of fresh red fruits and flowers are lifted by a peppery nuance. On the jammy side, with a seamless texture and good finishing breadth and cling. Not the last word on complexity but there's plenty of fruity appeal here." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 87pts
72965	2012 Chapoutier Domaine Bila Haut L'Esquerda Cotes du Roussillon Villages	$22.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2012 Cotes du Roussillon Villages Lesquerde L'Esquerde is primarily Syrah and comes all from granite soils. It gives up impressive minerality and crushed rock-like nuances to go with a core of dark fruits, pepper and olive tapenade. Full-bodied, layered and seriously focused and defined on the palate, it should benefit from a handful of years in the cellar and evolve gracefully through 2022 or beyond." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts
73114	2012 Domaine Charvin Cotes du Rhone Le Poutet	$18.99	$16.99*	11%
	"Deep ruby. Black raspberry and lavender on the perfumed nose. Juicy and precise, with very good depth and energy to its red and dark berry preserve flavors. A zesty mineral note gives lift to the persistent, silky finish, which is shaped by smooth, harmonious tannins. This outstanding value was made from fruit grown literally next to Charvin's Chateauneuf-du-Pape vineyard, and was raised entirely in concrete vats, like the Chateauneuf." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 90pts
74004	2012 Domaine Grand Veneur Cotes du Rhone Villages les Champavins	$18.99	$15.99*	16%
	"Tasting like a mini-Chateauneuf du Pape, with ripe mulled blackberries, spice, toast, licorice and hints of flowers, the Alain Jaume 2012 Cotes du Rhone Les Champavins is a blend of 70% Grenache, 20% Syrah and 10% Mourvedre that spent 12 months mostly in concrete tank. Medium to full-bodied, rich and balanced, it should drink nicely for 7-8 years." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 89 to 91pts
73808	2010 Pinyolet Seleccion	$19.99	N/A	N/A
	"Slightly more expensive, the 2010 Pinyolet Seleccion is a blend of 80% old vine Grenache and 20% Carinena (from vines planted in 1945 and 1928 respectively). The wine was aged eight months in 2-year old French oak barrels. It exhibits copious notes of damp earth, forest floor, and a fiery, Graves-like, volcanic smokiness that comes from the vineyard's soils. Rich, full-bodied and deep with plenty of kirsch, raspberry and black currant fruit characteristics, this mouthfilling red should drink well for 5-6 years." - Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts

74108	2012 Langmeil Shiraz Viognier Hangin Snakes	$16.99	N/A	N/A
	"Bright purple. Lively scents of blueberry, blackberry, cassis and anise, with complicating floral and cracked pepper nuances. Silky, sweet and pliant, displaying good clarity and lift to its dark fruit and spicecake flavors. Quite expressive now, finishing with soft tannins and good spicy persistence." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 90pts
72972	2012 Domaine Jean Louis Chave Cotes du Rhone Mon Coeur	$18.99	$16.99*	11%
	"Youthful purple color. Ripe dark berry and cherry-cola scents are enlivened by a peppery quality and a hint of violet. Round and fleshy on the palate, offering gently sweet blackberry and cassis flavors and a zesty spine of acidity. Finishes long and spicy, with building sweetness, soft tannins and a hint of smokiness." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 90pts
74033	2013 Mas de Bressades Grenache Syrah	$10.99	N/A	N/A
	"This is a delicious wine, featuring sweet cherry and dark berry notes, lots of spice, violets, and licorice. A smooth texture and medium bodied. This builds in richness and depth in the glass and has fine polished tannins with good length." - Reviewed by: Producer
73687	2013 La Vieille Ferme Red	$12.99	N/A	N/A
	"Deep cherry red. Ripe fruit, rich and spicy on the nose. Red fruit (blackcurrant and blackberry), spice with a fresh finish."
73812	2011 Vignobles David Syrah Grenache Reserve	$23.99	$19.99*	17%
	"Intense ruby color, tangy floral edge, red currant, plum, blackberry and cherry fruits notes, fine blended tannins on the mouth, spice and coffee finish with length." - Reviewed by: Producer
73811	2011 Mourre de l'Isle Cotes du Rhone	$19.99	$16.99*	15%
	"Nicely balanced with elegant tannins and a nose of cassis, violets and mulberries. The aromas are more complex, with air, showing hints of leather and fruit compote. This is a must for Rhone wine lovers. 60% Syrah, 30% Grenache, 10% Mourvèdre from vines averaging 35 years." - Reviewed by: Producer
74064	2011 Force Majeure Red Collaboration Series VI	$49.99	N/A	N/A
	"The estate's Rhone-styled blend is the Collaboration VI. Comprised of 47% Mourvedre, 42% Syrah and 11% Grenache, the 2011 Collaboration Series VI was fermented in concrete eggs (some whole-cluster inclusion) and aged 20 months in 500-liter French oak puncheons. Made by James Mantone (of Syncline), it offers classic white pepper, ground herbs, earth and assorted dark fruit characteristics to go with a medium to full-bodied, pure and beautifully textured feel on the palate. Elegant, fresh and with a terrific finish." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts
73142	2011 Mark Herold Collide Red	$29.99	N/A	N/A
	"Good deep ruby-red. Aromas of cherry, mocha and sweet spices. Plush and quite ripe in the mouth, with a seamless texture and a lightly high-toned quality to the flavors of cherry, minerals and mocha. Plump, sweet and satisfying: Herold says that the wine's sucrosite comes from the barrels. I like this blend." - Stephen Tanzer - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91pts
