73551	2005 Marques de Caceres Gran Reserva	$26.99	N/A	N/A
	"Ruby-red. Fragrant bouquet scents of ripe cherry, vanilla, pipe tobacco and woodsmoke, with subtle leather and clove nuances in the background. Smooth, sweet and expansive, offering energetic dark berry and cherry-vanilla flavors sharpened by gentle acidity. Finishes on a gently tannic note, with very good focus and persistence." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91pts
69781	2005 Hacienda Lopez de Haro Reserva	$17.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2005 Hacienda Lopez de Haro Reserva is a blend of 90% Tempranillo, 5% Graciano and 5% Garnacha aged for 20 months in French and American oak. It has a beautiful, rounded, sensual bouquet with hints of over-ripe Satsuma and gravel. The palate is medium-bodied with a touch of piquancy on the entry. It has crisp acidity and taut tannins on the dry, dusky finish but it remains extremely well-focused." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts
54362	2005 La Rioja Alta Vina Arana Reserva	$27.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2005 Vina Arana Reserva has a fresh bouquet of orange blossom, quince, violets and dark cherries. The palate is succulent on the entry with vivacious maraschino cherry, red currant and blood orange. It displays a very fine build and a silky smooth texture that segues to a poised, mint-tinged, bright and animated finish." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts
70858	2005 Franco Espanolas Rioja Bordon Gran Reserva	$22.99	N/A	N/A
	"This plump red offers juicy flavors of cherry, berry and orange peel, with tobacco and vanilla notes that float in a silky texture over light tannins. Delicate and elegant." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 92pts
67552	2005 Cune Imperial Gran Reserva	$59.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2005 Imperial Gran Reserva is firing on all cylinders. Smoked cured meats, balsamic notes of beeswax, antique shop and incense define the complex and elegant nose. The medium-bodied palate reveals an impressively powerful wine which manages to feel light on its feet. I needed to swallow a bit of wine to make sure; yes, it's truly elegant and classic. This is a great wine, which transports you to the old Grand Reservas of yesteryear. It delivers great quality at a great price." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 95pts
38225	2005 Bodegas Altanza Lealtanza Reserva Club	$49.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2005 Lealtanza Club Reserva was sourced from vines over 75 years of age and aged for 18 months in French oak. Deep purple in color, it sports an already complex nose of cinnamon, clove, incense, lavender, black cherry, and blackberry." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 95pts
68741	2005 Ramon Bilbao Gran Reserva	$27.99	N/A	N/A
	"This sleek red features cherry, tobacco and cedar flavors, with notes of spice and vanilla, backed by well-integrated tannins that support the polished texture. A fine example of the traditional style." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 92pts
66733	2005 Marques de Murrieta Castillo Ygay Gran Reserva Especial	$66.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2005 Castillo de Ygay Gran Reserva Especial, a classic among classics, is back in top form with the excellent 2005 vintage. It's produced from a blend of 89% Tempranillo and 11% Mazuelo (aka Carinena), a difficult grape that is in high esteem at the winery (they exceptionally produced a varietal Mazuelo in 2000 to celebrate their 150th anniversary) as they consider it adds acidity and aging potential to the blend and has been selected specifically to make part of the flagship wine's blend. It's extremely backward and tight, showing very young, with a balanced nose between spice, tertiary and cherry fruit aromas. It's a powerful, still young vintage, with plenty of glycerin, body, round tannins. An austere wine, it is complex and ever-changing in the palate. It has a sense of harmony that only the best wines have. Very long and elegant. I loved its serious and austere overall feeling. This is a true vin de garde which develops complex notes of violet and meat with time in the glass. This is a Gran Reserva greatly marked by the Mazuelo, which should give it great ability to age. At this quality level it represents very good value." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 96pts
60367	2005 Marques de Caceres Gaudium	$39.99	N/A	N/A
	"Opaque ruby. Sexy aromas of black raspberry, vanilla, pipe tobacco and Asian spices, plus a suave floral character. Fleshy dark fruit and violet pastille flavors open with air and show impressive energy, with a spicy note adding lift. Clings impressively on the finish, with the dark berry and spice notes repeating." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 92pts
40674	2005 Vina Mayor Reserva	$24.99	N/A	N/A
	"Medium purple in color, it offers up an already complex nose of mineral, Asian spices, lavender, smoke, a hint of balsamic, and blackberry. With plenty of structure, excellent depth, and layered flavors, this lengthy effort will benefit from another 2-3 years of cellaring and will offer a drinking window extending from 2012 to 2020." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts
