| 33587 | 2010 Chateau Pontet Canet Pauillac   | $240.00   | N/A              | N/A        |
|       | "An absolutely amazing wine, from grapes harvested between the end of September and October 17, this blend of 65% Cabernet Sauvignon, 30% Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot has close to 15% natural alcohol. It comes from one of the few biodynamic vineyards in Bordeaux, but you are likely to see many more, given the success that Tesseron seems to be having at all levels, both in his vineyards and in his fermentation/winemaking. An astounding, compelling wine with the classic Pauillac nose more often associated with its cross-street neighbor, Mouton-Rothschild, creme de cassis, there are also some violets and other assorted floral notes. The wine has off-the-charts massiveness and intensity but never comes across as heavy, overbearing or astringent. The freshness, laser-like precision, and full-bodied, massive richness and extract are simply remarkable to behold and experience. It is very easy, to become jaded tasting such great wines from a great vintage, but it is really a privilege to taste something as amazing as this. Unfortunately, it needs a good decade of cellaring, and that's assuming it doesn't close down over the next few years. This is a 50- to 75-year wine from one of the half-dozen or so most compulsive and obsessive proprietors in all of Bordeaux. Is there anything that proprietor Alfred Tesseron is not doing right? Talk about an estate that is on top of its game! Pontet-Canet's 2010 is a more structured, tannic and restrained version of their most recent perfect wine, the 2009. Kudos to Pontet-Canet!" -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 100pts |            |                  |            |

|       | "Proprietor Alfred Tesseron's 2011 Pontet-Canet is packaged in an engraved, heavy bottle, which only adds to the attractiveness of this beauty. A dense purple color is accompanied by notes of forest floor, acacia flowers and creme de cassis in this full, rich, and unequivocally classic Pauillac. With soft but noticeable tannins as well as a complete, full-bodied mouthfeel, this 2011 will benefit from 3-4 years of cellaring, and should age effortlessly for 15-20 years. This is both bigger and richer than the Folatières if less obviously mineral-inflected and I very much like the mouth feel of the refined middle weight plus flavors that exude a citrusy character on the dry, balanced and built-to-age finish. |       | "The 2011 Cerasuolo di Vittoria Classico is 60-40 Nero d'Avola and Frappato, aged 12 months in oak. The quality of the fruit is very dried, to the point of being a fault. Sun-dried cherries, raspberry roll-up candy and creme de cassis emerge in unison. The wine shows moderate depth and layering. A pretty dose of acidity helps to render more vibrancy to the mouthfeel." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 88pts   |            |                  |            |

Layered, rich and with serious minerality that comes out with time in the glass (I followed all of these releases for two days), this is a must taste for any Roussillon lover and it's a killer value.
