67834	2011 Wishing Tree Shiraz	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"Bright violet color. Pungent scents of red and dark berry preserves, peppery spices and vanilla, plus a slow-building smokiness. Creamy black raspberry, bitter cherry and floral pastille flavors are complicated by a note of licorice and lifted by tangy acidity. The finish echoes the sweet dark berry note and hangs on with good tenacity." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 89pts
60228	2012 Wishing Tree Unoaked Chardonnay	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"Light yellow-gold. Aromas of pit fruits, tangerine and honey, with a leesy undertone. Smooth and open-knit, offering plush nectarine and candied citrus fruit flavors that pick up a spicy nuance with air. Closes smooth and a bit warm, leaving a honeyed note behind." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 88pts
56124	2009 Frankland Isolation Ridge Shiraz	$33.99	N/A	N/A
	"Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2009 Isolation Ridge Shiraz gives notes of black cherry compote and warm blueberries with nuances of violets, nutmeg and black truffles. Medium to full-bodied, it offers a taut structure in the mouth with a medium level of grainy tannins and enlivening acid, finishing long." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts
74085	2011 Hazard Hill Shiraz	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"Bright ruby. Dark berries, cherry and licorice on the pungent nose and in the mouth. A floral quality comes up with aeration, adding complexity to the wine's dark fruit character. Shows a hint of bitter chocolate on the smoke-tinged finish, which is firmed by dusty, slow-building tannins. Give this one a little air time." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 88pts
53383	2008 Plantagenet Omrah Pinot Noir	$16.99	N/A	N/A
	"Medium ruby-colored, it delivers an attractive perfume of smoke, cinnamon, cherry, and cranberry. On the palate it is velvety-textured while exhibiting good varietal character. It is a superb value in Pinot Noir." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 89pts
