Wild strawberries and fresh red cherries on the palate, and both framed by a suggestion of chocolate—with just a hint of tannins emerging with time. Classic, classic, classic beaujolais with its bright red fruit and silky texture; this is bistrot wine at its very best, and will turn the head of even the most jaded wine geek. Insanely inexpensive at the moment—so buy this one by the case (or two—yes it's that good!) for a ready supply to enjoy throughout the spring and summer months."

	"Good bright dark red with ruby highlights. Rather wild aromas of raspberry, smoked meat and leather. Suave but sauvage, showing less vibrant fruit today than the Vosne Malconsorts. Intriguing note of dried flowers. In comparison, this is a bit medicinal and burly, finishing with dusty, building tannins and a slight dryness." Then pliant, sexy and plush on the palate, with an almost liqueur-like sweetness and impressive volume. Conveys an impression of low acidity but minerality gives the wine energy. There's a creamy, tiny-cluster quality here that is perfectly suited to the style of this vintage." 91-94 pts. Reviewed by Stephen Tanzer. - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91 to 94pts

	"Pungent red berry and mocha aromas are lifted by powerful crushed-stone minerality and complicated by an ineffable floral/earthy perfume. A real essence of 2008 on the palate, with outstanding sappy cut and penetration to the flavors of cherry, red berries, minerals and spice oil. The building finish spreads out inexorably to saturate the palate. Rigorous and stimulating: a wine of extraordinary complexity, energy and depth.
