	"Clear. Pistachio nougat, sweet cream, and cream of wheat aromas have a wonderful toasted grain edge and follow through on a soft, supple entry to an off-dry medium body with dried cherry, raisin toast and vanilla accents. Finishes in a husky, nutshell, powdered sugar, tarragon, and peppery spice fade with a hint of vinyl. A fun, lively vodka that is sure to inspire flavorful cocktails or all types. Silver Medal" - Reviewed by: Beverage Testing Institute

70982	Greyling Modern Dry Gin	$29.99	N/A	N/A
	"Greyling Modern Dry Gin is a contemporary American take on a traditional style gin. It's made in a copper pot still where the essence of the botanicals is captured by vapor-extraction. We start with a somewhat pared down recipe. The base spirit begins as Michigan Hard Red Winter Wheat and the botanicals include juniper, coriander, grapefruit and orange peels. We add a special variety of culinary grade lavender grown in northern Michigan to this mix. The lavender balances the acid in the citrus, provides a light sweetness, and gives a subtle floral aroma, which yields an approachable gin. Greyling can be enjoyed neat or mixed in classic cocktails." - Reviewed by: Producer

	"Henry Rowe Schoolcraft, noted American geographer, geologist and ethnologist, drew accounts of the Wisconsin territory during his 1832 expedition to find the source of the Mississippi River. He noted at the time that Wisconsin Schnapps was available for 4 cents a dram. While we haven't managed to maintain the price, we are able to present Schoolcraft's Original Wisconsin Schnapps Liqueur as we think it would have been enjoyed at the time - a special blend of local botanicals and flavors, crafted atop spirits derived from local grains."
