	"The 2009 Amarone della Valpolicella presents a stunning portrait of Corvina and Corvinone (85%), Rondinella and Oseleta. This is one of the best value options from the land of Amarone on the market today. Smooth lines with generous portions of dried cherry, prune, leather and tobacco add soft, penetrating qualities. The mouthfeel is long and silky, but the power and extraction of the 2009 vintage is on full display." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts

	"From the Classico zone, the 2009 Amarone della Valpolicella Classico undergoes three years of oak with stints in large oak cask, barrique and tonneaux. There's complexity and intensity here with background shadings of dried tobacco leaf, cherry cola, blackberry liqueur and worn leather. The wine shows great integration and smoothness, with just enough tannic firmness to give it importance and cellar longevity." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts

There's a tight and focused nature to this wine that underlines its fine quality and aging potential. The extraction is there, and so are the tannins and acidic components. Spicy tobacco and leather last long in the mouth. The wine is aged 36 months in large oak casks." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts

You don't find the thorny notes of oxidation you sometimes get with Amarone. This expression opens with an inky, impenetrable appearance and shows lingering notes of exotic spice, smoked bacon, grilled herb and blackberry preserves." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts

68576	2009 David Sterza Amarone della Valpolicella Classico "A wonderful treat, the 2009 Amarone della Valpolicella Classico is carefully aged in barrique for two years. 64790	2009 Maculan Torcolato "The gorgeous 2009 Breganze Torcolato opens with a bright golden color and a beautifully fragrant bouquet. Vespaiola grapes (100%) rooted in volcanic soils are air-dried after harvest for four months. Layers of honey, apricot, vanilla and light shadings of baking spice lift effortlessly off the bouquet. This is a delicious and significant wine that displays an immensely elegant bouquet with blackberry, dark chocolate and Asian spice. What I love most is that this wine never colors outside the lines and it never feels overdone or overripe. It's a modern rendition of Amarone that proudly carries its oak-driven aromas, but it also finds a way to neatly wrap all of its sinful excesses within the soft and velvety texture of its constitution." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 94pts

The 1997 Recioto isn't quite as extroverted as the profound 1995, but it does offer impeccable balance in a relatively understated, slender style for this house. I tasted the 1997 Recioto from both 375ml and 750ml bottles and found the wine consistently superb." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 94pts
