GSE	DESCRIPTION	REG. PRICE	SALE PRICE	DISCOUNT %
56402	2010 Chateau Gressier Grand Poujeaux Moulis en Medoc	$27.99	N/A	N/A

"A spectacular wine made by the owners of nearby and better-known Chateau Chasse-Spleen, this is a seriously endowed, dense, full-bodied wine made from an equal part blend of Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon. Oodles of black fruits, licorice, truffle and new saddle leather are present as well as some toasty oak. Full-bodied, deep, pure and exceptionally long in the mouth, this is a major overachiever that should drink nicely for 10-15+ years." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts

72557	2010 Chateau Poujeaux Moulis	$37.99	$33.99	11%

"Full red-ruby. Bright aromas of dark raspberry, licorice, minerals and espresso are lifted by a floral high note. Juicy, spicy and sharply delineated, with excellent energy to the ripe, complex flavors of dark berries, lead pencil and spices. This very fresh wine shows a very firm spine to support a leisurely evolution in bottle without coming across as austere today. An excellent and serious Poujeaux." Reviewed by: Stephen Tanzer, International Wine Cellar - 91pts "Aromas of blueberries and raspberries with hints of flowers. Full body, with fine tannins and a clean, fresh finish. So delicious but better in 2016." - Reviewed by: James Suckling - 92pts

55238	2006 Chateau Poujeaux Moulis	$38.99	N/A	N/A

"Its deep ruby/purple color, notes of sweet black currants, incense, camphor, and spice box, and medium to full-bodied style are accompanied by a wine with excellent fruit intensity, purity, and length. It should drink well for 10-15 years. Good value." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 89pts

70984	2006 Chateau Poujeaux Moulis	$38.99	N/A	N/A

"This estate was acquired last year by St.-Emilion's Cuvelier family, who has done a phenomenal job of bringing the famous Premieres Grand Cru Classe of St.-Emilion, Clos Fourtet, into superstar status. Nicolas Thienpont and Stephane Derenoncourt are now producing the wine, although I do not believe they had anything to do with the 2006. Its deep ruby/purple color, notes of sweet black currants, incense, camphor, and spice box, and medium to full-bodied style are accompanied by a wine with excellent fruit intensity, purity, and length. Good value." -Robert Parker, Jr. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 89pts

46514	2009 Chateau Poujeaux Moulis	$19.99	$18.99	5%

"Deep purple, with a nose of subtle smoke, graphite, blueberry and black raspberry fruit as well as some spring flowers, in the mouth a touch of oak makes an appearance, but the wine is full-bodied, rich, inky and unctuously textured due to the high glycerin and alcohol that hits 14% plus. This beauty should drink well for up to two decades."-Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts

53403	2010 Chateau Poujeaux Moulis	$37.99	$33.99	11%

"Full red-ruby. Bright aromas of dark raspberry, licorice, minerals and espresso are lifted by a floral high note. Juicy, spicy and sharply delineated, with excellent energy to the ripe, complex flavors of dark berries, lead pencil and spices. This very fresh wine shows a very firm spine to support a leisurely evolution in bottle without coming across as austere today. An excellent and serious Poujeaux." Reviewed by: Stephen Tanzer, International Wine Cellar - 91pts "Aromas of blueberries and raspberries with hints of flowers. Full body, with fine tannins and a clean, fresh finish. So delicious but better in 2016." - Reviewed by: James Suckling - 92pts

46515	2009 Chateau Poujeaux Moulis	$69.99	$59.99	14%

"Deep purple, with a nose of subtle smoke, graphite, blueberry and black raspberry fruit as well as some spring flowers, in the mouth a touch of oak makes an appearance, but the wine is full-bodied, rich, inky and unctuously textured due to the high glycerin and alcohol that hits 14% plus. This beauty should drink well for up to two decades."-Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts

21539	2009 Chateau Poujeaux Moulis	$32.99	N/A	N/A

"Deep purple, with a nose of subtle smoke, graphite, blueberry and black raspberry fruit as well as some spring flowers, in the mouth a touch of oak makes an appearance, but the wine is full-bodied, rich, inky and unctuously textured due to the high glycerin and alcohol that hits 14% plus. This beauty should drink well for up to two decades."-Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts

46516	2009 Chateau Poujeaux Moulis	$160.00	N/A	N/A

"Deep purple, with a nose of subtle smoke, graphite, blueberry and black raspberry fruit as well as some spring flowers, in the mouth a touch of oak makes an appearance, but the wine is full-bodied, rich, inky and unctuously textured due to the high glycerin and alcohol that hits 14% plus. This beauty should drink well for up to two decades."-Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts