GSE	DESCRIPTION	REG. PRICE	SALE PRICE	DISCOUNT %
66162	2011 Domaine les Aphillanthes Cotes du Rhone Villages Cuvee Trois Cepages	$19.99	$17.99	10%
	"The 2011 Cotes du Rhone-Villages Trois Cepages is equal parts of tank-aged Grenache, Syrah and Mourvedre. Always a winner, this full-bodied, pure wine ratchets up the level of concentration. It offers notes of underbrush, lavender, black raspberries and kirsch in its deep, medium to full-bodied, surprisingly dense personality." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90 to 92pts
66164	2011 Domaine les Aphillanthes Cotes du Rhone Vieilles Vignes	$23.99	$21.99	8%
	"A blend of 80% Grenache and 20% Mourvedre that spent 18 months in equal parts concrete and demi-muids, the 2011 Cotes du Rhone Villages Vieilles Vignes offers up a sweet raspberry and strawberry-scented bouquet that turns more spice, garrigue and floral with air. Soft, seductive and beautifully textured, it's a gorgeous 2011 that's hard to resist now." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts
66165	2011 Domaine Aphillanthes Rasteau 1921 Cotes du Rhone Villages	$26.99	$23.99	11%
	"The spectacular 2011 Rasteau 1921 is comprised of 90% Grenache, 7% Mourvedre and 3% Carignan, with the Grenache coming from vines planted in 1921. Offering up a stunning bouquet of black raspberry, licorice, spring flowers, underbrush and lavender, this medium to full-bodied, elegant, yet substantial 2011 has gorgeous overall balance, solid mid-palate depth and sweet tannin that comes through on the finish. Count me a fan." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts
66163	2011 Domaine les Aphillanthes Cotes du Rhone Cuvee le Cros	$21.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2011 Cotes du Rhone-Villages Les Cros is 100% Syrah aged in small oak. Its dense purple color is followed by notes of cassis, blackberries, vanillin and spice box." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 89 to 91pts
70888	2011 Domaine Les Aphillanthes Cotes du Rhone Villages les Galets Plan de Dieu	$16.99	$14.99	12%
	"Fresh and enticing, with mouthwatering, finely beaded acidity along the edges of the blackberry-, raspberry- and fig-flavored core. Floral, spice and apple wood notes keep this humming through the finish." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 91pts
71622	2012 Domaine les Aphillanthes Cotes du Rhone Blanc Clementia	$18.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2012 Clementia Blanc is a lovely blend of 45% Viognier, 45% Roussanne and 10% Clairette from organically and biodynamically farmed vineyards cropped at a modest 36 hectoliters per hectare. It exhibits lots of chalky minerality as well as hints of rosewater, orange marmalade, mango and pineapple. Medium-bodied with good structure, delicious fruit and surprising complexity, it should be consumed over the next several years." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts
55368	2011 Domaine les Aphillanthes Cotes du Rhone Carmin	$12.99	$11.99	8%
	"Made in a seductive style with plenty of flowery, red and black currant fruit intermixed with dusty, loamy soil and underbrush characteristics, this medium-bodied, silky Cotes du Rhone is a heck-of-a value. Enjoy it over the next several years." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts
73113	2013 Domaine les Aphillanthes Cotes du Rhone Carmin	$13.99	$11.99	14%
	"Dark fruit flavors such as blueberries and blackberries come from Syrah, while raspberries and earthen aromas come from the Grenache. Cinsault lifts the aromatics of the wine with its soft, perfumed characteristics, but in heavier proportions it can also impart gamey notes." - Reviewed by: Producer
40601	2010 Domaine les Aphillanthes Cotes du Rhone Villages Cuvee Trois Cepages	$19.99	$17.99	10%
	"the Trois Cepages is an outstanding wine. Ripe, pure, fresh and crunchy with loads of strawberry and kirsch fruit intermixed with earthy undertones, it should drink nicely for 5-7 years." Reviewed by Robert Parker. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts			