72425	2011 Domaine Cordier Pouilly Fuisse Vieilles Vignes	$44.99	$39.99*	11%
	"The 2011 Pouilly-Fuisse Vieilles Vignes has a well-defined bouquet with nicely integrated oak: hints of passion fruit, quince and dried herbs. The palate is crisp and fresh with orange cordial and passion fruit notes, well-judged acidity and a lovely build toward its apricot and quince-infused finish. This is very cohesive and well-crafted." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts
56432	2011 Domaine Marie-Pierre Manciat Pouilly Fuisse Les Petites Bruyeres	$23.99	$21.99*	8%
	"The 2011 Pouilly Fuisse Les Petites Bruyeres cuts a broader, more savory mouthfeel. Full-bodied with good minerality as well as lots of flesh and plenty of buttery citrus intermixed with tangerine oil, poached peach and white currant notes." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts
58773	2010 Heritiers du Comte Lafon Vire Clesse	$32.99	$29.99*	9%
	"An overtly ripe yet fresh and bright nose of yellow orchard fruit that includes honey, peach, apricot and mango as well as hints of the exotic. The ripeness carries over to the generous, seductive and opulent medium-bodied flavors that possess excellent intensity on the vibrant, balanced, palate staining and long citrus-infused finish. There is not knockout depth but the style and verve are exceptionally attractive." - Reviewed by: Burghound - 91pts
59681	2011 Chateau Fuisse Pouilly Fuisse Tete de Cru	$35.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2011 Chateau-Fuisse Tete de Cru is a blend of 20 different cuvees from 40 different parcels, sourced from vines over 25 years in age, 30% fermented in tank and the rest in barrel. The nose is tightly coiled with subtle leesy aromas infused with acacia and lemon rind. The palate is well-balanced with a fine thread of acidity, the clayey soils lending the power and thrust on the spice-tinged finish, which retains wonderful elegance." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts
