	"The classic Morgon cuvée, elegant and fresh, is full of red fruit flavours with underlying hints of pepper and silky tannins. This wine is matured in old, 3000 litre oak foudres which allow the wine to soften and fully integrate the fruits and tannins." - Reviewed by: Producer

	"Deep crimson; its bouquet has a strikingly complex array of black characters that run all the way from the first whiff to the finish and aftertaste: licorice, tar, bitter chocolate, blackberry, prune and plum. The tannins are prominent, and play their part with each successive sip of the steadily building impact on the very long palate, but they are in balance with the fruit and oak of an extremely powerful Grange."

	"A profound example of finesse and power packed into a 100% Grenache cuvee, this opaque purple-colored offering boasts loads of cassis, kirsch, lavender and floral notes, a full-bodied mouthfeel, and a delicate, light, ethereal style. A wine of great majesty, exquisite flavor concentration and unbelievable complexity, it can be drunk over the next quarter of a century. Bravo to Peter Weygandt, Baptiste Grangeon and their oenologist, Gerard Lafont!" -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 96 to 98pts
