	"Our Skinnygirl White Cranberry Cosmo is a sassy take on a classic, combining hints of orange essence, subtle lime, berry fruit notes and cranberry into a natural, agave-sweetened wonder. And because we use white cranberries and premium vodka, you don't have to worry about spills and stains due to that oh-so-functional martini glass. So pour yourself a glass, garnish with a few cranberries on a toothpick, and enjoy a Skinnygirl Cosmo without worrying about spills - or calories." - Reviewed by: Producer
