72920	2013 Novellum Chardonnay	$9.99	N/A	N/A
	"More serious and layered, the 2013 VDP Cotes Catalanes Novellum is a crazy value that needs to be tasted to be believed. A custom cuvee by importer Eric Solomon and a blend of 100% Chardonnay that comes from two separate vineyards, this Cotes Catalanes is aged three months (on Viognier lees) in a combination of Burgundy barrels and stainless steel. Exotic and perfumed, with ample white peach, creme, brioche and subtle nuttiness, it flows onto the palate with a medium to full-bodied, layered and beautifully detailed texture that shows bright acidity and fantastic purity of fruit. An incredible effort that has both richness and freshness, it should continue to thrill for another handful of years." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts
72381	2012 Domaine Lafage Bastide Miraflores Vieilles Vignes	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"As for the two red wines, the 2012 Bastide Miraflores is a blend of 70% Syrah and 30% Grenache aged in a combination of concrete tanks (for the Grenache) and demi-muids (for the Syrah). It went through a six week maceration, which no doubt explains the wine's seriously intense fruit. Notes of violets, forest floor, black cherry jam and blackberries make an appearance in this medium-bodied, high-toned, dense, rich, complex, well-delineated red wine." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts
72382	2012 Domaine Lafage Tessellae Carignan Old Vines	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"The only red presented at this tasting, the 2012 VDP Cotes Catalanes Tessellae is 100% old vine Carignan, aged ten months in concrete tank, that comes from vineyards in Maury and Les Aspres (both of which have schist soils). An old-world styled fruit-bomb, with its massive and decadently-styled blackberry fruit, spice, licorice and plum, this full-bodied effort has no hard edges, beautiful purity of fruit and a seamless texture that stays nicely focused and clean. Enjoy this sexy, voluptuous beauty over the coming 4-5 years (although I suspect it will last longer as well)." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts

72380	2012 Domaine Lafage Cuvee Nicolas	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2012 Cotes Catalanes Cuvee Nicolas is an off-the-hook value. Named after Jean-Marc's son and made from 100% Grenache from higher elevation sites in the Aspres region, fermented with 20% stems and aged half in demi-muid, it offers layers of kirsch, underbrush, licorice and serious floral notes in its medium to full-bodied, elegant and seamless profile. Getting a big "wow" in the notes and showing fine tannin and serious length, it should be snatched up by savvy readers and consumed over the coming 3-4 years." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts
72383	2012 Domaine Lafage Tessellae Old Vines Grenache Syrah Mourvedre	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2012 Tessellae Old Vines Cotes du Roussillon is a blend of 40% Grenache from 60-year-old vines, 40% Syrah and 20% Mourvedre (both from 20-year-old vines). The fruit was all aged 12 months in 1-year-old concrete tanks. A big, barbecue/smoky brisket-like nose intermixed with kirsch liqueur, lavender and pepper scents jumps from the glass of this complex, mid-weight, savory, mouthfilling red with soft, velvety tannins. This bistro-styled red wine should be enjoyed over the next several years." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts

	"Made from 60% Grenache, 30% Syrah and 10% Carignan, the 2012 Cotes du Roussillon Villages Chimeres is mind-blowing stuff that comes from 100- to 105-year-old vines and spent 8-12 months in a combination of 500-liter barrels and concrete vats. From primarily schist soils, it boasts knockout aromas of black currants, smoked earth, licorice and wild herbs that give way to a full-bodied, voluptuously textured effort that has a loaded mid-palate, no hard edges and serious length on the finish. Possessing a solid 4-5 years of prime drinking (if not more), it's a brilliant value that readers need to snatch up." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts

Coming from parcels in Minervois and Saint Chinian (yet due to blending regulations, it's labeled as VDF), it sports an inky, opaque purple color to go with rocking aromas of crunchy black fruits, pepper, leather, scrub brush and flowers. Medium to full-bodied, rich and nicely concentrated, with a core of sweet fruit, it needs a decant to shine, and will be even better in another year."
69200	2011 Chateau Puech Haut Coteaux de Languedoc Prestige	$16.99	N/A	N/A
	"A sensational offering from proprietor Gerard Bru, the 2011 Prestige is the estate's least expensive wine. With Bru's top Reserve wine selling for nearly $100 a bottle, the Prestige cuvee is an outstanding value. The wine is aged in concrete tanks prior to being bottled unfiltered. Some of the vineyards are farmed organically and others biodynamically. The wine exhibits a tremendous perfume of sweet raspberries, spring flowers, forest floor, truffles and lavender as well as a beautiful texture, a full-bodied mouthfeel, stunning velvety tannins and purity, and a long finish.
