A classic blend of Garnacha and Cariñena aged in a combination of concrete, old foudres and barriques. It has the red fruit from the colder village of Scala Dei plus the advantage of a cool vintage, so the wine comes through as very fresh with some spiciness, nothing heavy or oaky about it. The tannins are silky, and the texture is very elegant. It feels young and elegant like a Pinot Noir from the south. 	"The 2011 Xinomavro Hedgehog Vineyard...is Alpha's high altitude, bargain-priced Xinomavro, and it is usually quite a bargain these days. Rather refined and showing off its balance and finesse on first taste, this then becomes more traditional Xinomavro. The acidity pops up and the astringency on the finish follows quickly. Yet, it's beautifully constructed overall and ultimately very well balanced. Thanks to the late release, this is certainly approachable now. I gave it some two hours of air as well, and it became very attractive and more harmonious. For all of its power and acidity, everything is controlled well. It has lovely, silky texture and a full feel in the mouth on opening, too. It is a perfect food wine, but if you give it another year or two I suspect it will even be better. It is very much still on the upswing. 82232	2014 Chateau Lilian Ladouys Saint Estephe (Futures)	$17.00	N/A	N/A
	"The Château Lilian-Ladouys 2014 is a blend of 55% Merlot, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon, 4% Cabernet Franc and 1% Petit Verdot cropped at 44hl/ha. Aged in 30% new oak from several cooperages, it veers towards fleshy red berry fruit on the nose with hints of dried herbs and sous-bois lending personality, something to talk about. The palate is medium-bodied with tobacco infused black fruit, masculine in style with good backbone and impressive precision on the finish. This Saint Estèpe cru has seen a rapid improvement in recent years and this is another fine wine to add to their roster. I expect the bottle sample to land at the upper end of the band and continue the upswing in fortunes since its acquisition by Jacky Lorenzetti." - Neal Martin, eRobertParker.com #218, Apr 2015 - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90 to 92pts
82325	2014 Chateau La Dauphine (Futures)	$16.75	N/A	N/A
	"The La Dauphine is gorgeous. Succulent black cherries, plums, smoke, licorice and sweet spice meld together in a juicy, forward Fronsac that should drink well pretty much right out of the gate. The style is forward, fruit-driven and racy to the core. There is so much to like here." - Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: April 2015 - Reviewed by: Vinous - 88 to 91pts
84214	2013 Domaine Lafage Bastide Miraflores Vieilles Vignes	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"I have loved the wines from Domaine Lafage in the past, and this 2013 Bastide Miraflores Cotes Catalanes is one of the greatest red wine values I have tasted in the last year or so. A custom cuvee put together by Eric Solomon and Jean-Marc Lafage, it is a blend of 70% Syrah and 30% Grenache that spent one year in 80% concrete tank (Grenache) and 500-liter demi-muids (Syrah). From a Roussillon vineyard dominated by gallets roubles that resembles many Chateauneuf du Pape vineyards, the wine undergoes a long maceration of six weeks. The result is an inky/blue/purple-colored wine offering a big, sweet bouquet of blueberries, blackberries, acacia flowers, pepper and spice. This full-bodied, opulent, majestic dry red unleashes tremendous ripeness, richness and intensity. One would normally think such a superb, remarkable wine would cost over $50 a bottle, but this beauty is available for an astonishing $14 a bottle. You'll have to taste it to believe it! It should drink well for 2-5 years." - Robert M. Parker, Jr., Wine Advocate #213, Jun 2014 - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts
79286	2011 Alberti Ca'de Calle Reserva	$19.99	N/A	N/A
	"Based on malbec, this blend includes cabernet sauvignon (14 percent) and petit verdot (12 percent). It glides across the palate with the smooth tannins typical of malbec, and the flavor of chocolate-dipped cherries." - Reviewed by: Wine & Spirits - 91pts
72010	2012 Castano Solanera Vinas Viejas	$13.99	N/A	N/A
	"Even more remarkable is the 2012 Solanera Vinas Viejas, a blend of 70% Mourvedre, 15% Cabernet Sauvignon and 15% Grenache aged 10 months in a combination of French and American oak. A custom cuvee that is only available through importer Eric Solomon, this amazing red wine displays notes of lead pencil shavings, acacia flowers, black raspberries, blueberries and black currants. This full-bodied, intense 2012 tastes like it should cost three to five times as much. Full-bodied, stunningly pure and textured, it should last for 4-5 years, possibly longer." - Robert M. 83491	2013 Selvapiana Chianti Rufina	$15.99	N/A	N/A
	This wine was named #23 on Wine Enthusiast's Top 100 Wines of 2015. "Elegant and fragrant, this opens with aromas of pressed rose, crushed violet, wild berry and a whiff of baking spice. The vibrant, focused palate delivers juicy red cherry, raspberry, white pepper, cinnamon and dried herb. It's well balanced, with supple tannins and bright acidity. Drink through 2018." - Kerin O'Keefe, 9/1/2015 - Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast - 93pts

60114	2010 Capcanes Costers del Gravet "From the appellation of Montsant (next door to Priorat), the 2010 Costers del Gravet is made from an intriguing blend of 50% Cabernet Sauvignon, 30% Grenache and 20% Carignan (or as the Spanish call it, Carinena) that spent 12 months in new and up to 2-year-old American and French oak. Abundant notes of toasty oak, espresso roast, white chocolate, blackberries and black currants are found in this dense ruby/purple-colored 2010. Full-bodied, rich and concentrated with terrific fruit as well as intensity." - Robert Parker, Jr. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts	$17.99	N/A	N/A
68421	2010 Valdemar Seleccion Inspiracion This wine was named #34 on Wine Spectator's Top 100 Wines of 2013. "Fresh and focused, this sleek, lively red shows black cherry, wild berry, licorice, mineral and toasty flavors that glide over the palate, supported by well-integrated tannins and bright acidity. A graceful, modern style." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 91pts	$19.99	N/A	N/A
935780	2012 Raats Family Red Jasper "The 2012 Raats Family Red Jasper is based on 81% Cabernet Franc, 13% Malbec and a sprinkling of Bordeaux varieties. It has a tightly wound bouquet, a little more tertiary than the 2011 with blackberry, strawberry pastilles, cedar and dry tobacco. The palate is medium-bodied with a spicy opening. There is instantly good structure and focus here, well-judged acidity and a crisp, classy finish. There is a bit of swagger about this wine. Drink 2014-2020." - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #209, Oct 2013 - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts	$18.99	N/A	N/A
75295	2011 Tapiz Alta Collection Malbec "The 2011 Tapiz Alta Collection Malbec is quite similar to the Zolo Reserva Malbec, but a couple of steps higher in focus and intensity, with subtle aromas of flowers and blue fruit, a sleek palate with no edges, good acidity and intensity. This wine represents very good value." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts	$16.99	N/A	N/A
85870	2013 Tenet The Pundit Syrah "Shows nice tension between the ripe, dark flavors and crisp, lively structure, featuring a sleek core of plum and smoky tea flavors that carry easily into the long and deftly balanced finish. A little cellaring should soften the tannins. Best from 2017 through 2020. Smart Buy." - Harvey Steiman, Oct 15, 2015 - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 92pts	$19.99	N/A	N/A
82053	2013 Wines of Substance Cabernet Sauvignon by K Vintners "Another stunner from the team at Charles Smith, the 2013 Substance is a Cabernet Sauvignon dominated blend that comes from the higher elevation vineyards of Goose Ridge and Frenchman Hills. Harvested in early November and aged in 40-50% new French oak, it sports gorgeous aromas and flavors of cassis, violets, pencil shavings and tobacco/herbs to go with a medium to full-bodied, layered, rich and beautifully balanced profile on the palate. Scheduled to be bottled in December, it tastes like a wine that taste 3-4 times what this is going for. It is a knockout value. It should be purchased by the case and consumed over the coming 7-8 years, if not longer." - Jeb Dunnuck, Wine Advocate #213, Jun 2014 - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90 to 93pts	$14.99	N/A	N/A
56965	2010 First Drop Mother's Ruin Cabernet Sauvignon "Glass-staining ruby. Classic cabernet aromas of red- and blackcurrant, cherry, tobacco and medicinal herbs, with a floral overtone and a strong note of mocha. Juicy, gently chewy and deep in dark fruit flavor, with gentle acidity adding definition and lift. Dusty tannins give grip to a long, spicy and nicely focused finish." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91pts	$19.99	N/A	N/A
77316	2012 Penfold's Bin 8 Cabernet Shiraz "A newer wine that is composed of 57% Cabernet Sauvignon and 43% Shiraz, sourced from the Barossa Valley, Wrattontully, McLaren Vale, Padthaway and Langhorne Creek. The nose is quiet striking, there's a nicely crafted oak element layered into the mix, the Shiraz comes across flamboyant and chocolatey, the Cabernet adds leafy notes. There's a little dark olive and plenty of dark fruit flavours on the palate, great depth and well-judged ripeness. This is succulent and rich, quite silky and even, showing plums and spice, deep red and purple fruit flavours, some gentle mocha oak and smooth, approachable layered tannins." - Reviewed by: James Suckling - 92pts	$19.99	N/A	N/A
