74315	2009 Ramos Pinto Late Bottled Vintage  "Intense color, very opaque, with beautiful violet reflections. Intense and elegant, rich in aromas of red fruits, mild violet with notes of lavender and pepper. In the mouth it is fresh and harmonious, rich in ripe fruit, with balsamic notes that goes down well with a suggestion of chocolate and pink peppercorns. Enveloping structure, soft and fresh tannins that promise an excellent development." - Reviewed by: Producer	$24.99	N/A	N/A
19144	2009 Quinta do Vallado Reserva  "Rich, powerful and finely crafted, with layers of concentrated red plum, currant, blueberry and kirsch flavors. Silky tannins knit it seamlessly together. The elegant and refined finish is filled with mineral, smoke and spice." Highly Recommended. - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 96pts	$52.99	N/A	N/A
71986	2009 Niepoort Late Bottled Vintage Port  "A pretty, deep ruby/violet color, it has a complex aroma where red fruit notes are predominant, reminiscent of cherries and spices, with a peppery touch. A hint of dark chocolate. On the palate, it is greatly concentrated and full-bodied with firm tannins which at the same time are elegant and smooth. The great acidity provides freshness and balance to the wine. The finish is long and pleasant. This LBV is ready to be enjoyed and will become more complex by extending aging for a couple of decades." - Reviewed by: Producer	$23.99	N/A	N/A
56780	2009 Chryseia  "The 2009 "Chryseia" is 70% Touriga Nacional and 30% Touriga Franca, aged for 13 months in new oak. While it retains its intensity of flavor and is hardly for the shy, it has begun to show a bit more class and integration, not just flamboyance and sex appeal. Its underlying power is asserting itself a little as well. It is a big, big Chryseia; this certainly has the potential to be the best Chryseia ever." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 94pts	$39.99	N/A	N/A
