66780	2012 Vila Vilano Tineta	$13.99	N/A	N/A
	"Deep ruby. High-pitched red berry and floral scents are lift deeper notes of woodsmoke, licorice and mocha. Sappy, penetrating raspberry and cherry-cola flavors show impressive clarity and energy, picking up an allspice nuance with air. Finishes juicy and long, with supple tannins and excellent focus. This wine delivers exceptional value, especially for its appellation." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91pts
67387	2012 Convento de Las Claras Tinto Fino	$15.99	N/A	N/A
	"A gem from the Ribera del Duero in Spain, which produces some of the best tempranillo wines in the world. The wine has deep, rich flavors of blueberry and cherry compote with touches of licorice and spice cabinet. Very velvety and lush. Drinks nicely the second day after opening, too." Reviewed by: George S, Wine Consultant, Binny's Plainfield "Saturated ruby. Smoky, expansive aromas of candied cherry, rose and pipe tobacco. Silky, sharply focused red fruit and floral pastille flavors pick up a spicy nuance with air and display impressive energy. Closes silky, sweet and very long, with fine-grained tannins adding shape." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91pts
67388	2011 Convento de Las Claras Heritage	$21.99	N/A	N/A
	"Dark purple. Explosive aromas of black and blue fruits, incense and vanilla, with a smoky overtone and a hint of minerality. Pliant and broad on the palate, offering intense cassis and boysenberry flavors lifted by juicy acidity. Shows a distinctly spicy quality on the finish, which features smooth tannins and a hint of smokiness." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 92pts
73781	2012 Finca Villacreces Pruno	$18.99	N/A	N/A
	"This blend of 90% Tempranillo and 10% Cabernet Sauvignon emerges from a vineyard situated adjacent to one of the famous vineyards utilized to produce Spain's greatest red wine, Vega Sicilia. Made from relatively old vines, the 2012 Pruno is a sexy, opulent, voluptuously textured effort that spent 12 months in two-year-old French oak barrels. Reminiscent of a baby Vega Sicilia, it possesses a dense ruby/purple color as well as notes of high-class, unsmoked cigar tobacco, creme de cassis, licorice, graphite and spice box. Full-bodied, deep, velvety textured, lush and heady, at $20 a bottle, it is another sensational bargain from Eric Solomon." - Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts

66862	2010 Tinto Pesquera	$34.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2010 Tinto Pesquera Crianza is raised for 18 months in 90% American and 10% French oak. It is bestowed with a ripe bouquet of dark plum, cassis and dried violets that is well defined and becomes more generous with each swirl of the glass. The palate is succulent on the clean, pure entry. There is good weight in the mouth with layers of cassis and blackberry fruit." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts

	"Vivid purple. Ripe boysenberry and blueberry aromas and an undercurrent of mocha on the nose, with candied licorice and vanilla qualities coming up with air. Lush, weighty and round, showing good thrust to its dark berry liqueur and cocoa flavors. Finishes creamy, round and long, with soft tannins and building notes of plum and dark chocolate." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91pts
60892	2011 Flor de Pingus	$89.99	N/A	N/A
	"Demonstrates wonderful purity on the nose, perhaps more feminine and wily than the 2010 with luscious raspberry, blackberry and forest floor notes. The palate is full-bodied with filigree tannins and a little more volume than the 2010. It seems generous and very supple at this early juncture with a caressing, peppery finish that is extremely well focused." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts

	"Opaque purple. A heady, complex bouquet evokes blackberry and blackcurrant liqueur, with suave oak spice and potpourri elements. Sweet, broad and pliant, the intense dark fruit flavors showing great power, richness and depth. Very young but flat-out seductive, finishing on a sweet, sappy note of candied dark fruits, with lush, harmonious tannins. I also had the chance to revisit this bodega's ultra-premium Malleolus de Sanchomartin and Malleolus de Valderramiro from the 2008 vintage (reviewed last year), and while both wines are years from maturity they show strikingly flamboyant character and make a serious impression right now. I suppose I'd feel some guilt pangs if I opened either of them now, but it would be guilt I could deal with after asking for mercy from the wine gods." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 93pts

	"The 2010 Pingus soars from the glass with copious dark cherry, blueberry, blackberry and crushed violet scents that are sensual and alluring. The palate is full-bodied and masculine. Indeed, having tasted this in March it seems to have tightened up in the three months to June. It is sturdy and powerful, with immense weight and presence and yet retains exquisite focus and poise. It builds in the mouth towards the persistent, crystalline blackberries, cassis and cedar-tinged finish that suggests this will be a seriously long-term Pingus." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 95 to 97pts
