	"Beautiful, rich amber color. Somewhat shy aromas of baked pear, caramel, and spice. A soft, delicate entry leads to a dry-yet-fruity light-to-medium body of dried fruits, mocha fudge, and dusty spice. Finishes with a star anise, caramel, and peppercorn fade." - Reviewed by: Beverage Testing Institute

	"Crus de Grande Champagne: A bright amber Cognac with a buttery yellow gloss. Wonderful complexity on the nose, aromas of creamy vanilla, a grind of coriander and a touch of honey. Beautiful balance in the mouth, absolute perfection, smooth, sensuous mouth feel. A very complete Cognac. A blend of Cognacs aged in oak barrels for 25 to 30 years. After the final blend, each barrel lays undisturbed for an additional three years." - Reviewed by: Producer

	"An exclusive collection of exceptional Cognac from 1943 to 1983. Each bottle contains Cognac taken exclusively from one vintage in the barrels, where the brandy gradually matures. Even the annual loss (Angels Share) is replaced by spirit from the same year, thus guaranteeing a 100% vintage Cognac from each year. A vintage 1983 Cognac will only, therefore, contain brandies distilled from wines of the 1983 harvest. A one of a kind experience!" - Reviewed by: Producer
