71807	2012 Tarima Hill Monastrell	$14.99	N/A	N/A
	"Tarima Hill is made from old vine Monastrell planted at high elevations in Alicante. The wine undergoes malolactic fermentation in barrels and is aged in 100% French oak for 20 months. That said, The wine is rich, full bodied and intense. Black and blueberry fruit, chocolate tones and a long finish loaded with vanilla. This is as hedonistic as you will find in the 'under $20' category." - Reviewed by: Producer

Fresh raspberries and lavender notes emerge with time in the glass. Round and lush, with a persistence of fruit and clarity of flavors often found in wines twice the price. Really brightens with every ensuing sip. An absurd value." - Reviewed by: Binny's

Fleshy and seamless, offering sappy red fruit flavors and a bitter note of rhubarb. Subtle vanilla and licorice notes linger on the smooth, gently tannic finish. 71639	2008 Chateau Pradeaux Bandol Rouge	$39.99	N/A	N/A
	"The Bandol from Pradeaux is a creature whose soul emerges from Mourvèdre. The classic cuvée is 95% Mourvèdre and 5% Grenache, with the Grenache adding spice to the bouquet and leavening some of the drama provided by the intimidating structure of the Mourvèdre. One of the hallmarks of Pradeaux is that the grapes are never destemmed. The result is a wine of ferocious tannin in its youth, another reason for the prolonged aging in these large wooden barrels, a time for the wine to repose and find its identity as it emerges from the cocoon of tannins to reveal an exceptionally complex crowd of aromas and flavors." - Reviewed by: Producer
