	"Bottled three weeks before I tasted it in late June, Fevre's 2012 Chablis Champs Royaux offers a juicy amalgam of honeydew and lime on a glossy palate, leading to a relatively simple but refreshing, invigorating and persistent finish." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 87pts

	"An airy, elegant and very pure nose offers up notes of ocean breeze, algae, green fruit and floral scents. There is excellent concentration but also fine vibrancy to the well-detailed medium weight flavors that ooze an appealing minerality on the tautly muscular and dry but not especially austere finish. This is a beauty." - Reviewed by: Burghound - 90 to 92pts

	"The Servin 2012 Chablis Premier Cuvee Les Pargues – from a site of manifestly but never official cru quality and constituting, as usual, a selection of tanks from old vines to be bottled late and unfiltered for U.S. importer Peter Weygandt – leads with a fantastic nose that could only come from Chablis. Sweet-saline shrimp and lobster shell reductions vie for attention with Normandie Sydre-like apple and pear, migrating onto a lush, succulently-juicy palate and leading to a mouthwatering finish still full of mysterious crustacean appeal as well as marked by chalky and faintly acrid and metallic but undeniably invigorating notes." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90 to 91pts
69554	2011 Domaine Servin Chablis Vieilles Vignes Massale	$21.99	N/A	N/A
	"Here there are still residual fermentation notes though it's clear that the underlying fruit is ripe. The mouth feel is also quite seductive as there is excellent richness to the abundant level of dry extract that imparts a sappiness to the impressively persistent finish. This is also a bit firmer but this is a villages that should drink well both young and old." - Reviewed by: Burghound - 88 to 91pts
70625	2011 William Fevre Chablis Bougros	$75.99	N/A	N/A
	"This also displays an abundance of classic Chablis character with iodine, tidal pool and ripe green fruit aromas that precede dense, muscular and overtly powerful flavors that culminate in a saline-infused and impressively persistent finish where a touch of wood surfaces. As Bougros typically is, this is a big wine with almost painful intensity. While this slightly smoky effort isn't particularly refined, it is certainly dramatic and imposing." - Reviewed by: Burghound - 92 to 94pts

	"A somewhat leesy character dominates the otherwise ripe fruit and mineral reduction notes and it's clear that this needs to be racked. There is a slightly exotic element to the rich and notably opulent flavors that possess outstanding intensity on the salty finish that, interestingly, exudes a minty character. While not altogether typical, this is a very impressive effort as the depth and persistence are first-rate." - Reviewed by: Burghound - 92 to 94pts

There is outstanding richness to the powerful and impressively concentrated middle weight flavors that retain a racy mouth feel thanks to the bracing acidity that imparts a real sense of lift to the driving finish. This is also quite good and worthy of your attention." - Reviewed by: Burghound - 91 to 93pts

It offers a lusciously juicy, sweetly-citric palate impression mouthwateringly mingled with clam stock and transparent to nuances of spices, toasted nuts, salt and stone. Soothing and elegant, clear, delicate and refined, this really grows on me as it opens up in the glass.
