"While no surprise here, this wine, which will be bottled in 2009, is certainly this estate's greatest effort since their 2001. It completely outclasses everything from the appellation, but even when you're number one, that's often hard to do. This light gold wine offers up a sensational smorgasbord of aromas including huge honeyed pineapple and other caramelized tropical fruit flavors, massive richness, and a viscous, unctuous texture with the oak beautifully integrated. The wine has enough acidity to buttress its full-bodied mouthfeel, but this is not by any means the sweetest or most alcoholic of the d'Yquems I have tasted. In fact, in the range of d'Yquems, this is a powerful wine, but it is one built more on finesse and elegance, a la the 1988. Nevertheless, this wine will prove to have 50+ years of longevity. The finish, the mid-palate, the sensation of looking at a skyscraper of Semillon with a small dosage of Sauvignon, is impressive. Like all of the sweet wines of Barsac and Sauternes, one can drink this young, but the nuances and complexities really don't emerge for at least a decade, especially in the case of a wine such as this. Bravo!" Reviewed by Robert Parker. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 96 to 98pts

21128	2006 Guigal Cote Rotie La Mouline	$325.00	N/A	N/A

"Intensely floral scents of raspberry, blackberry, cinnamon, allspice and smoky minerals. Open-knit red and dark berry flavors are strikingly pure and underscored by a tangy note of blood orange. Extremely fresh wine with excellent finishing thrust and mineral-driven persistence. With air this became even more floral and picked up subtle tannins; I'd bet on it being very attractive in its youth." 94-96 pts. - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 95pts

64529	2006 Comte de Vogue Bonnes Mares	$350.00	N/A	N/A

"Mint, concentrated red and black fruits, smoked meat, and black pepper pungently scent the De Vogue 2006 Bonnes Mares. These migrate with almost implosive intensity to a palate lushly textured though finely tannic and almost implacably dense yet shot through with electric energy" - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 94pts

18860	2006 Rubicon Estate	$125.00	N/A	N/A

"Supple, graceful and harmonious. ...with a mix of ripe, fleshy espresso bean, mocha, dried currant and dusty berry fruit that's focused and persistent, ending with firm yet integrated tannins." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 90pts

262916	2006 Chateau Faugeres	$35.99	N/A	N/A

"Shows dried blackberry on the nose, with hints of mineral and fresh herbs. Full-bodied, with a solid core of fruit and silky, chewy tannins. Cool, minerally and fruity, with excellent length. Very well made for the vintage." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 91pts

59939	2006 Castello dei Rampolla Sammarco	$69.99	N/A	N/A

"The 2006 Sammarco flows across the palate with waves of beautifully delineated dark fruit. Grilled herbs, smoke, menthol, licorice and minerals come to life on the palate, adding further complexity. Today the tannins are quite clamped and also a touch dry on the finish. The 2006 isn't a blockbuster, but a wine built on elegance and class above all else." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts

62748	2006 Chateau La Violette Pomerol	$175.00	N/A	N/A

"This is a terrific La Violette, with a gorgeously floral, black raspberry, and black currant nose, a dark plum/purple color, and a full-bodied mouthfeel, but with an ethereal lightness and sweet noble tannins. The textured, layered mouthfeel is impressive, the purity impeccable, and the finish very, very long." Reviewed by Robert Parker. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts

34357	2006 Penfolds Grange	$400.00	N/A	N/A

"Deep crimson; its bouquet has a strikingly complex array of black characters that run all the way from the first whiff to the finish and aftertaste: licorice, tar, bitter chocolate, blackberry, prune and plum. The tannins are prominent, and play their part with each successive sip of the steadily building impact on the very long palate, but they are in balance with the fruit and oak of an extremely powerful Grange."

65442	2006 Louis Roederer Brut	$69.99	N/A	N/A

"Light, bright yellow. Intensely perfumed bouquet of melon, pear, jasmine and iodine, with mineral and buttered toast accents. Deeply pitched, palate-staining orchard and pit fruit and lemon pith flavors are brightened by zesty acidity and pick up a smoky nuance with air. Powerful but lithe, finishing with excellent thrust and lingering floral and mineral qualities." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 93pts

60115	2006 Gramona III Lustros Cava Brut Nature Gran Reserva	$49.99	N/A	N/A
	"Bright straw-colored yellow with green tones. Strong aging, smoked and toasted notes. Mountain flowers and nuts that will quite possibly fuse into a pleasing butter aroma, of café au lait caramel, and even a few forest, dried fig and marron glacé tones. Soft touch, the bubbles pack an elegant attack, with pronounced overtones of ripeness, blancmange, pine nut bread, and pastries, thoroughly covering the palate and bringing back memories of nut shells, rosemary, rye, malt, pralines, dry bread... good feel to the foam, which evokes cream on some parts of the palate, well-modulated CO2." - Reviewed by: Producer
