	"Casillero del Diablo Reserva Carmenere is a deep, dark purple wine with aromas of dark plum, chocolate and hints of coffee and toasty oak. On the palate, there are notes of dark plums and spice, generously framed by toasty American oak with a soft and well-structured mouth-filling texture." - Reviewed by: Producer
57372	2011 Carmen Carmenere Gran Reserva	$14.99	N/A	N/A
	"Our Gran Reserva Carmenere its a dense and concentrated wine with an intense dark purple color. The nose is rich and very honest to the variety showing ripe berries, sweet spices, tobacco and earthy aromas. Soft touches of spicy anise and paprika add complexity. The palate is generous, with supple texture and sweet tannins that are smooth and concentrated. Small percentages of Carignan and Tempranillo had been included to refresh the mouthfeel and to increase its vibrancy. The wine has persistency and great length." - Reviewed by: Producer

67399	2009 Santa Rita Medalla Real Carmenere	$17.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2009 Carmenere Medalla Real is nicely framed by its oak. Aromas of pain grille, graphite, dark chocolate, plum, and blackberry are followed by a medium- to full-bodied, layered, full-flavored wine with enough structure to evolve for 2-3 years at which point it could well merit an outstanding rating. As is, it is an outstanding value." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 89pts
70918	2009 Koyle Carmenere Reserva	$14.99	N/A	N/A
	"Vina Koyle's 2009 Carmenere Reserva includes 8% Cabernet Sauvignon and 7% Syrah in its blend. It saw 60% of the wine aged in French oak for 12 months while 40% was aged in stainless steel. Notions of herbs and spices, lavender, blueberry, and blackberry inform the nose of a layered, plush, sweetly-fruited wine that nicely shows off Carmenere's positive attributes. This lengthy effort has the balance and structure to drink well for another 5-6 years." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts
