	"Focused, with a singed apple wood frame propelling the core of plum, cassis and black cherry fruit. The solid finish lets hints of charcoal and anise flitter in, displaying fine cut." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 90pts

32383	2010 Chateau Lanessan Haut Medoc	$21.99	N/A	N/A
	"Dark ruby/plum colored, with evolved notes of cedar wood, earth and underbrush, this wine possesses the classic tobacco leaf and black currants of a mid-level Medoc. It is medium-bodied, has good ripeness and should age nicely for 15 or more years." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 87pts
70965	2006 Chateau Lanessan Haut Medoc	$24.99	N/A	N/A
	"This is another very good effort from this consistent property that turns out wines that are often very close to classified-growth quality. Dark ruby/purple-tinged with cedary, black currant notes intermixed with roasted herbs and underbrush, this medium-bodied wine displays excellent concentration and relatively sweet tannins. It should evolve nicely for another 10-12 years." -Robert Parker, Jr. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 88pts
20738	2009 Chateau Cambon la Pelouse Haut Medoc	$23.99	N/A	N/A
	"Another of my favorite estates from the southern part of the Medoc, Macau, this Haut-Medoc cru bourgeois is a blend of 54% Merlot, 42% Cabernet Sauvignon and 4% Petit Verdot. The alcohol was 14% and the wine bottled unfinned and unfiltered by its consulting oenologist, the brilliant Claude Gros. Wonderfully dark ruby/purple in color, with loads of sweet berry fruit as well as hints of licorice and charcoal, the wine displays a lush texture, medium to full body, and the vintage's tell-tale ripeness, high glycerin and silky texture. Drink it over the next 5-6 years." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts

33654	2010 Chateau La Tour Carnet Haut Medoc	$45.99	N/A	N/A
	"Probably La Tour Carnet's best since their 2001, the 2010 La Tour Carnet exhibits wonderful ripeness, a dense ruby/purple color, notes of licorice, camphor and some toast as well as lots of black currant and blueberry fruit. It is medium to full-bodied, with attractive sweetness of tannin, good acidity, excellent delineation to its component parts, and a full-bodied, impressively long finish. This wine may close down somewhat, given the moderate tannins, but it seems relatively accessible despite being a 2010." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts

	"Dense but fresh, with a saturated core of blackberry pâte de fruit, anise and plum sauce that races along with vibrant spice and graphite notes. The long finish shows cut and drive, with enough grip to cellar short term." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 90pts
32999	2010 Chateau Sociando Mallet Haut Medoc	$45.99	N/A	N/A
	"A very classic wine for patient connoisseurs, Sociando Mallet makes no compromises and continues to produce one of the finest wines among non-classified estates in Haut-Medoc. Dense purple to the rim, the opaque purple-colored 2010 offers up notes of graphite, blueberry and black raspberry fruit, a hint of cassis, some licorice and wet rocks. Deep, full-bodied and almost excruciatingly tannic, this full-throttle, balls-to-the-wall style of wine needs at least 8-10 years of cellaring and should keep for three decades or more." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts
46505	2009 Chateau La Tour Carnet Haut Medoc	$22.99	N/A	N/A
	"This dense purple wine displays notes of charcoal, subtle toast and white chocolate as well as blueberry and blackberry liqueur intermixed with hints of graphite and licorice. Dense, full-bodied, unctuously textured, and quite long and thick, this concentrated, impressively endowed wine is silky-textured and already accessible. However, I suspect its best days are at least 5-7 years ahead of it. It should keep for a minimum of two decades." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92pts
