33239	2010 Chateau de Chambrun Lalande de Pomerol	$39.99	N/A	N/A
	"This captures the ripeness of the vintage nicely, with lush linzer torte and blackberry notes carried by plush, well-integrated structure." -Wine Spectator, 89 to 92 pts. "Chateau Chambrun is emerging as a worthy competitor to what is generally considered to be the finest wine of the appellation, La Fleur de Bouard. Cropped at 21 hectoliters per hectare, and made from a final blend of 94% Merlot and 6% Cabernet Franc, the 2010 is a real blockbuster. Its dense purple color is followed by a big, sweet nose of melted chocolate, espresso roast, blackberries and cassis. Aromatic, rich, unctuously textured and thick, it achieved 14.5% natural alcohol and should drink nicely for 7-8 years." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts
56288	2010 Chateau des Arnauds Cuvée Capucins Lalande de Pomerol	$13.99	N/A	N/A
	"Red ruby color. Fruity, grilled and slightly woody aroma. Silky and delicate palate. Well-balanced wine with a fine red berry touch. Elegant and fruity finish." - Reviewed by: Producer
33215	2010 Chateau Les Cruzelles Lalande de Pomerol	$29.99	N/A	N/A
	"Sports a good coating of roasted apple wood to go with the core of juicy plum and steeped black currant fruit. Lively anise and clove notes stud the finish, with the toast hanging on. A touch amped up, but will certainly have some fans." - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 91pts
70386	2009 Domaine Pont de Guestrès Lalande de Pomerol	$22.99	N/A	N/A
	"Made entirely of Merlot, this wine offers ripe and rich forward fruit that is simply luscious. The flavors are supported by a soft but solid tannic backbone that provides structure without a harsh finish. Round and full on the palate, the wine shows great balance from the nose through to the finish." - Reviewed by: Producer
