	"Moving up another notch on the richness scale, the 2011 Perigee Estate Seven Hills Vineyard will be a rough blend of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Franc and the balance Malbec and Petit Verdot. A beautifully layered and rich barrel sample, it delivers plenty of red and black fruits, graphite, mineral and floral undertones as well as a medium to full-bodied, textured mouthfeel. Solid in the vintage, it will drink nicely for a decade or longer." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 89 to 92pts
69106	2012 Leonetti Merlot	$89.99	N/A	N/A
	"The wine is dark and saturated. In the glass, the wine explodes with an ethereal, complex nose of cinnamon, plum, pomegranate, clove, and a hint of spring pine forest. On the palate, the wine has delicious fresh ripe fruit, Reminiscent of berry pie filling. Incredible richness but with a stunning levity that lifts. A dead ringer for some of the finest Pomerol I have ever tasted. Quite simply an incredibly sexy, hedonistic wine." - Reviewed by: Producer
71645	2011 L'Ecole No 41 Ferguson Vineyard	$55.99	$49.99*	11%
	"The 2011 Ferguson comes from the newly planted (planted in 2008) Ferguson Vineyard located at the very top of the Seven Hills region, in the southwest part of the Walla Walla Valley, at an elevation of 1,450 feet. A blend of 55% Cabernet Sauvignon, 35% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc that spent 20 months in 50% new French oak, it possesses a deeply fruited, mineral-driven profile with notions of black fruits, iron, crushed stone and smoked earth all showing in the glass. This medium to full-bodied effort builds on the palate with layers of fruit, tannin and acidity, and has a burly, structured finish." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91 to 93pts
72403	2009 Tranche Cabernet Sauvignon	$39.99	$35.99*	10%
	"Dense with flavors of blueberry and cassis, it's been soaked in delicious French oak barrels (60% new) for 30 months, and then given further bottle age before being released. Coconut and vanilla highlights are threaded through long, fine, dense, ripe tannins. This strong, stylish wine can be cellared until 2024–2029." - Reviewed by: The Wine Enthusiast - 94pts
68519	2011 Reininger Syrah Walla Walla	$27.99	$25.99*	7%
	"Elegance and beauty best describe this dark garnet colored Syrah that floats a vine woven potpourri basket of dried lavender, violet, and honeysuckle petals with mild spice down a satin river of blueberry and huckleberry reduction, swirling into an eddy of Crème de Cassis and Chambord Frambois while 'the mist of a smoke of a distant fire' lingers over the slow moving current that has cut shallow banks through soft loamy soils. A requisite long rest on the palate exudes languishing intense and juicy flavors on a riverbed of soft tannins." - Reviewed by: Producer
69107	2011 Leonetti Cabernet Sauvignon	$99.99	$89.99*	10%
	"Loaded with leafy tobacco, cassis, saddle leather and mineral aromas and flavors, it is ripe, rounded and has sweet tannin on the finish. It should round into form with a year or two of release and have 12-15 years of ultimate longevity. Drink 2015-2026." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93 to 95pts
69108	2011 Leonetti Reserve	$160.00	$140.00*	13%
	"The most unique of the 2011s barrel samples, with a bright, juicy profile that includes loads of black fruit, citrus, assorted wild herbs and floral qualities, the 2011 Reserve hits the palate with a medium to full-bodied, elegant and balanced mouthfeel, sweet tannin and an overall classy personality. Plush, rounded and layered with fruit, it should drink nicely for over a decade." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 92 to 94pts
69105	2011 Leonetti Sangiovese	$74.99	$59.99*	20%
	"Offering plenty of black cherry, cedar plank, spice box and hints of chocolate, the 2011 Sangiovese is beautifully ripe, layered and has excellent mid-palate density. It's certainly an outstanding bottle of wine and should be approachable on release and drink nicely for 10-12 years." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91 to 93pts
72117	2011 K Vintners Syrah River Rock	$44.99	$39.99*	11%
	"Looking at the 2011s from barrel, all of which are impressive, the 2011 Syrah Riverrock Vineyard is 100% Syrah that's aging in puncheons and on gross lees (this is slightly heavier, larger pieces of skin, pulp etc.). Showing the cooler nature of the vintage, with lively blackberry, smoke, lavender and crushed stone, it doesn't lack for richness or depth and has full-bodied power, great acidity and a long, classy finish. I imagine it will benefit from short-term cellaring once released and have a lengthy drink window." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93 to 95pts

	This wine was named #18 on Wine Enthusiast's Top 100 Cellar Selections of 2013. "This is the third release of Figgins, a single wine produced by Leonetti's Chris Figgins from his Figgins Estate vineyard. Intensely aromatic, it explodes from the glass with baking spices and deep cassis fruit. Over the course of three days it opened into a sleek, stylish, complex mix of purple- and black-berries, dried herbs, bark, dusty cocoa and a streak of caramel. Long and lush, it's a wine to cellar for a decade or more." Reviewed by: Wine Enthusiast - 96pts "On another level, the 2010 Estate Red Wine is something to behold! A blend of mostly Cabernet Sauvignon – yet with smaller portions of Merlot and Petit Verdot – aged in 75% new and 25% 1-year-old French oak barrels for 20 months, it has a decidedly dark fruit profile with Pauillac-like aromas of black raspberry, creme de cassis, coffee bean, graphite, mineral and toasted bread all emerging from the glass. Deep, rich and layered, with a full-bodied, concentrated and structured feel on the palate, it fleshes out beautifully with air and is up there with the creme de la creme of the vintage and region. As the score suggests, this is one producer not to miss!" - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 97pts
