	"Opaque ruby. Sexy, high-toned cherry and blackcurrant aromas are complicated by notes of Indian spices and fresh rose. Smooth and seamless in texture, offering intense black and blue fruit flavors that become spicier with air. The floral element repeats on the finish, which shows excellent clarity and persistence. This wine delivers uncanny value and has the structure to age." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91pts

	"Another outstanding effort is the 5,000-case cuvee of 2012 Lomo Pardo (100% Mencia from vines planted in 1980). Mencia often resembles a ripe Cabernet Franc from France's Loire Valley, and this wine displays vivid aromatics of blueberries, raspberries and spring flowers. Medium-bodied with outstanding flavor intensity, excellent balance between the acids, tannin and fruit, and a long, mineral-laced finish. The wines from Bierzo are gaining in popularity, but this impressive effort remains fairly priced." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts

An old-world styled fruit-bomb, with its massive and decadently-styled blackberry fruit, spice, licorice and plum, this full-bodied effort has no hard edges, beautiful purity of fruit and a seamless texture that stays nicely focused and clean. This is one of the best value options from the land of Amarone on the market today. Smooth lines with generous portions of dried cherry, prune, leather and tobacco add soft, penetrating qualities. The mouthfeel is long and silky, but the power and extraction of the 2009 vintage is on full display. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts

Made in an elegant style, this complex Riserva shows some of the slightly advanced and oxidized flavors one might reasonably expect from 10 year-old wine, yet the balance is utterly compelling. Juicy dark cherries, cinnamon, plums, spices, incense, tobacco and a myriad of aromas and flavors saturate the palate as this big, textured wine opens up in the glass. Despite its considerable richness and plushness, the 2007 never loses its classical sense of structure. If that combination sounds appealing, believe me, it is. Brilliantly focused, powerful and gripping, it assaults the palate with its fruit as well as its power and acidity. Earthy, complex and captivating, this is an intense wine that will appeal to "old style" Barolo lovers. Its purity of fruit and structure are both top notch. The next day it had thinned, making me question its concentration a little, if I may quibble. It was, however, even more complex and interesting, still gripping and powerful.
