54233	Revolution A Little Crazy	$99.99	N/A	N/A

"Pilsner malt base provides a nice toasty flavor with hints of caramel and enough fermentable sugar to make this a rather substantial beer. Pilsner malt is the base with a little carapils and belgian caramunich. Hops in brewhouse are magnum,cascade and citra with a dryhop blend of citra and cascade. This drives home the aromas of fresh citrus rind to make this a very drinkable and extremely aromatic Belgian American Pale Ale." - Reviewed by: Producer

"A few years ago it was probably considered a little crazy to put Belgian yeast in an insanely hoppy American IPA, but not anymore. This exercise is now common practice, and Revolution has perfected it in A Little Crazy. Added bonus: it is available in cans."
